JUCO GUARD JOHNSON SIGNS WITH LADY TOPPER BASKETBALL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – Lady Topper Basketball Head Coach Greg Collins has announced the signing of junior college point guard Jo’Nah Johnson, formerly of Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, who will be immediately eligible and have two years remaining in the Lady Topper program.

“We are so excited to have Jo’Nah joining us here at WKU. This is a kid that has the potential to be a Power 5 player with her ability on the court, and being able to sign her over interest from Big 12, SEC and other C-USA schools speaks to our history as a program,” Collins said of the addition. “We are ready to get her here this summer and work her into our system right away.”

Last season, Johnson ranked 15th among all NJCAA players in the nation with 155 assists, averaging five helpers per game and dishing out 10 or more assists three times, including a season-best 12 against Eastern Oklahoma State on Jan. 31. Johnson also poured in 15 points per game for the Lady Norse while starting all 31 games in 2018-19.

One of Johnson’s top highlights with the Lady Norse came in an 82-73 win at Western Oklahoma State on Jan. 17, when the sophomore collected a triple-double with 24 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists. In the aforementioned game against Eastern Oklahoma State, Johnson also tallied a season-best 38 points on 14-of-21 shooting from the field, including an 8-for-13 mark from three-point range.

“Jo’Nah is a true point guard and that is something that will put us in a great position moving forward,” Collins said. “Whitney Creech has done a fantastic job as our point guard for the last two seasons, and this will also allow us to get her more minutes at her natural two-guard position. Having different styles of play from the point guard position and multiple players who can handle that spot should free up things both inside and along the perimeter next season.”

Johnson began her collegiate career at Central Oklahoma of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association as a freshman in 2017-18. With the Bronchos, Johnson averaged 8.6 points, 2.4 boards and two assists across 29 games before making the move to Northeastern Oklahoma A&M.

In high school, Johnson helped to lead Edmond Santa Fe High School to the Class 6A state tournament in each of her four seasons while earning All-State and Super Five honors from The Oklahoman. A McDonald’s All-America game nominee, Johnson averaged 11.1 points, 4.1 assists, 3.3 rebounds and two steals per game during her senior campaign.

Johnson joins a Lady Topper squad that went 20-15 in Collins’ first year at the helm in 2018-19. WKU advanced to the semifinals of the C-USA Tournament and the third round of the WNIT despite facing one of the most daunting schedules in recent memory; the Lady Toppers faced nine opponents that finished in the top 50 of the pre-tournament RPI rankings, including three matchups against top-10 foes Notre Dame, Louisville and Iowa.

ELGEDAWY, ABDELGAWAD KICK OFF AFROBASKET QUALIFYING IN UGANDA WEDNESDAY

KAMPALA, Uganda – Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad are set to begin their stint with the Egyptian national team as AfroBasket Zone 5 qualifying gets underway inside Uganda's Lugogo Indoor Arena on Wednesday.

Egypt will be joined by 10 other nations, including host Uganda, Somalia, Sudan and Kenya among others in the Zone 5 qualifying tournament. The winner of the round-robin format event will receive automatic qualification into AfroBasket 2019, set to be hosted by Senegal in August.

The Egyptian Lady Topper duo are believed to be the first WKU basketball athletes to represent their senior national team while enrolled at the university.

Both have previously seen playing time for the Egyptian senior national team, a two-time winner of AfroBasket (as the United Arab Republic) in 1966 and 1968. Egypt has finished in the top eight in each of the last three competitions, including a seventh-place finish in the most recent edition in 2017, the nation's best result since 2000.

Elgedawy and Abdelgawad helped to lead the Lady Toppers to a 20-15 record in 2018-19, reaching the semifinals of the C-USA Tournament before earning a pair of wins over Miami (Ohio) and Morehead State in the Postseason WNIT.

A Second Team All-C-USA performer, Elgedawy averaged 15.4 points and a team-best 7.7 rebounds last season while also blocking 29 shots to build on her 2017-18 C-USA Freshman of the Year campaign. Elgedawy was named the C-USA Player of the Week for the first time in her career on Jan. 21 after dominant showings at FIU and Florida Atlantic, putting up 26.5 points and 12.5 boards across the two contests.

Abdelgawad turned in a strong freshman season in her debut on The Hill, starting all 35 games and earning a spot on the C-USA All-Freshman Team. She was named the C-USA Freshman of the Week three times, tied for the second-most among all league freshmen, and was WKU's top first-year player in scoring (8.1), rebounds (2.3) and assists (1.4) per game.

EGYPT WINS ZONE 5 QUALIFYING, ADVANCES TO 2019 AFROBASKET FINALS

KAMPALA, Uganda – Behind strong performances from Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad, Egypt finished a perfect run through Zone 5 qualifying on Monday morning with a 90-72 victory over Kenya inside the Lugogo Indoor Arena, securing a spot in the 2019 AfroBasket finals to be hosted next month in Senegal.

The Egyptians posted a perfect 5-0 record in the qualifying tournament, winning all three of their group stage games before defeating Rwanda in the semifinals on Sunday and knocking off Kenya on Monday. In perhaps their most impressive win of the event, Egypt overcame a 16-point halftime deficit against host Uganda in their second qualifying game last Thursday, outscoring the hosts 40-15 over the final 20 minutes in the 64-55 win.

Abdelgawad appeared in all five games for the Egyptians, averaging nine points, four rebounds and 2.4 assists per game. The rising sophomore enjoyed a breakout performance in Egypt's first game, scoring nine of her team-high 19 points in the fourth quarter of a tight 86-82 win over Kenya. The Cairo native also knocked down a three-pointer in the final minute against Uganda to hold off a late charge.

Despite missing Egypt's first two games, Elgedawy closed the tournament in a big way, averaging a double-double with 11.7 points and 11.7 rebounds over the final three games. The C-USA Second Teamer was dominant in Egypt's 78-73 semifinal win over Rwanda, finishing with 10 points and 21 rebounds, the second-most by any player in a single AfroBasket qualifying game this year.

Egypt's qualification for the 2019 AfroBasket finals continues a strong recent run by the country in the competition. A two-time winner in 1966 and 1968 as the United Arab Republic, Egypt has now reached four straight AfroBasket finals, its second-longest streak in the competition's history.

The 2019 AfroBasket finals will be hosted in Dakar, Senegal, between August 9-18. The Egyptians, one of 12 teams to reach the finals, will be seeking to improve upon a seventh-place finish in the most recent AfroBasket competition in 2017.

LADY TOPPER BASKETBALL ANNOUNCES COMPLETE 2019-20 SCHEDULE

2019-20 Schedule PDF Attached

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. – A daunting slate that includes 14 home games inside E.A. Diddle Arena and matchups against six NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago awaits Lady Topper Basketball and second-year Head Coach Greg Collins in 2019-20 as announced by the program on Thursday afternoon.

WKU's first five regular season contests all come against 2019 NCAA Tournament opposition, with three of those dates coming inside the friendly confines of Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers will add one more non-conference home game against Oklahoma in December before welcoming nine C-USA opponents to Bowling Green after the start of the new year.

The Lady Toppers will open the 2019-20 campaign with an exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan on Halloween night, looking to extend its long winning streak in exhibition tilts. WKU has won 35 consecutive exhibition matchups, including last season's 104-74 victory over West Virginia State in Collins' official debut as head coach.

The in-state rivalry against Louisville will be renewed for the fourth time in the last five season in the regular season opener on Nov. 5, with the Lady Toppers making the short trip north to face the Cardinals, who reached the Elite Eight before falling to UConn last season. The two sides also battled in the regular season opener last year, with Louisville taking a 102-80 win inside Diddle Arena. WKU leads the all-time series against the Cardinals by a 25-21 margin.

A trip to Mercer three days later on Nov. 8 awaits WKU. The Bears have won 80 combined games over the last three seasons, including a 30-win campaign during the 2017-18 year; that season, the Lady Toppers and Bears met in the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic, with WKU dealing Mercer a 67-62 defeat; that loss would be the last time that the Bears would lose before falling in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

WKU will close out its tough season-opening stretch with home games against three more NCAA Tournament teams, welcoming Belmont (Nov. 13), Central Michigan (Nov. 17) and Little Rock (Nov. 24) into Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers split games against the Chippewas and Trojans last season, falling against Central Michigan but knocking off Little Rock on the road. The Belmont matchup will be the first meeting between the two sides since 2015-16, and WKU has won its last eight in the series over the Bruins.

For its Thanksgiving tournament, WKU will trek to the West Coast for the Saint Mary's Thanksgiving Classic, taking on Tulsa (Nov. 29) and host Saint Mary's (Nov. 30) in the event. The Lady Toppers have never met either side on the hardwood and will be seeking their first in-season title since the West Palm Invitational in 2017-18.

Oklahoma will make its aforementioned trip to Diddle Arena on Dec. 4, extending WKU's streak of hosting at least one Power 5 opponent in each of Collins' seasons on staff (since 2012-13). Three straight road trips will round out the tough non-conference slate as WKU travels to Ball State (Dec. 7), Samford (Dec. 15) and Purdue (Dec. 18) before having more than two weeks off for the holiday break.

WKU will begin its C-USA campaign on the road for just the second time since joining the league, heading to Texas to face North Texas (Jan. 2) and defending league champion Rice (Jan. 4) on the opening weekend. WKU won on the road in Denton last season in a 71-66 win to avenge a home loss to the Mean Green, but fell twice against Rice, including in the C-USA Tournament Semifinals. WKU was the lone C-USA team that Rice did not defeat by double digits in 2018-19, and the Owls will enter conference play with 19 consecutive wins over C-USA foes.

For their first home weekend, the Lady Toppers will host UAB (Jan. 9) and archrival Middle Tennessee (Jan. 11) inside Diddle Arena. The matchup with UAB will be a rematch of the 2017-18 C-USA Tournament title game won by the Lady Toppers, and WKU will be seeking to make it six straight wins over the Blue Raiders on John Oldham Court.

Three straight road games, including WKU's first trips to Old Dominion (Jan. 16) and Charlotte (Jan. 18) since 2016-17 will be up next, with the Lady Toppers then getting a week off before a trip to Huntington, W. Va., to take on Marshall (Jan. 25). Against those three opponents, WKU posted a perfect 5-0 record in 2018-19 with a pair of wins over both Old Dominion and Marshall.

Visits from Florida Atlantic (Jan. 30) and FIU (Feb. 1) await in the following week of action. WKU holds perfect records against both the Owls and Panthers since joining the league in 2014-15, posting a combined 12-0 record in those matchups. In the combined all-time series against the Florida schools, WKU is 48-11, with no losses since the 2012-13 campaign.

WKU will face a tough road trip to Louisiana Tech (Feb. 6) and Southern Miss (Feb. 8) after splitting its lone game against both in 2018-19. The Lady Toppers have a perfect 6-0 record against the Lady Techsters since joining C-USA, but have been dealt three losses by Southern Miss, including last season's 69-56 loss that snapped WKU's streak of 22 consecutive home C-USA wins.

In its final three games before beginning the new season-ending format, WKU will welcome UTEP (Feb. 13), UTSA (Feb. 15) and Marshall (Feb. 20) to Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers enjoyed thrilling road matchups against the Miners and Thundering Herd last season, rallying from 12 points down in El Paso for a 64-61 win and then picking up a 69-66 overtime victory over Marshall.

In C-USA's new schedule format, the Lady Toppers will play on four out of five dates (Feb. 22, Feb. 26, Feb. 29, March 5 and March 7) to end the regular season, with two home games and two away games during that span. No later than December 15, the conference will predetermine the remaining four games with consideration for the most competitive matchups coupled with geographical constraints.

The 2020 C-USA Championships will take place at The Ford Center at The Star in Frisco, Texas, for the third straight year from March 11-14, with the winner of the tournament earning the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Finalized game times for the season will be announced at a later date.

LADY TOPS FOCUSED ON 'TEAM CONCEPT' IN OPEN PRACTICE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Lady Topper Basketball gave fans a first look at its 2019-20 roster Saturday with an open practice at E.A. Diddle Arena.

The Lady Toppers went through a lengthy practice of about three hours, purposefully meant to test their endurance and their decision-making when fatigued.

"The game doesn't end with everyone rested," WKU head coach Greg Collins said. "The season doesn't end with everyone healthy and 100 percent. We're trying to put them in some of those situations and recreate that feeling of having to make good decisions under pressure."

The Lady Toppers are entering Year 2 under Collins, who last year led WKU to the Conference USA Tournament semifinals in his first season at the helm.

Playing one of its most difficult schedules in many years, the Lady Tops secured their seventh straight 20-win season in 2018-19.

"We've had a bunch of kids working hard all summer long, so we're glad to get the whole team here and start building on what we did last year," Collins said. "We're trying to resolve some issues that we had – we felt like we had some unfinished business last year."

The Lady Toppers return their top five scorers from last year's squad, led by redshirt senior guard Dee Givens, who averaged 17.6 points and was a First-Team All-C-USA Selection a year ago.

Junior forward Raneem Elgedawy returns after averaging 15.4 points and 7.7 rebounds last year. Also back are redshirt senior guard Alexis Brewer (11.4 points per game), sophomore guard Meral Abdelgawad (8.1 ppg), senior guard Whitney Creech (6.1 ppg), among others who will see their roles increase.

After having to replace the production of outgoing stars Ivy Brown and Tashia Brown last season, Collins said having a core group of returners back this season changes the mentality in the preseason.

"It's a different process," he said. "Last year we were trying to replace 50 percent of our scoring and a lot of our rebounding, so we had a different initial goal heading into practice. Now we're doing a little more building, making sure we know who's going to get the shots and where they're going to come from, and really working on our team concept."

GIVENS, ELGEDAWY TABBED PRESEASON ALL-C-USA; WKU PICKED THIRD

DALLAS — After breakout seasons from both Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy in 2018-19, the duo were voted Preseason All-Conference USA by league coaches heading into the new season. The Lady Toppers were also picked to finish third, the conference office announced on Wednesday.

Givens was C-USA's third leading scorer last season, averaging 17.6 points per game, and earned a C-USA All-Conference First Team and All-Defensive Team nods at the end of the season. The Lexington, Kentucky native broke onto the scene as an accurate shooter and lockdown defender for the Lady Toppers. She became the first Lady Topper in school history to post a 45-40-85 shooting line for an entire season (45.5 from the field, 40.1 from three-point range and 85.9 from the free throw line). She had the third most 3-pointers (79) in a single season in program history and the third best free-throw percentage (.859) in a season by a Lady Topper. Her 99 steals in 2018-19, the most of any player in C-USA and 19th in the nation.

Elgedawy earned C-USA All-Conference Second Team honors at the end of last season as a sophomore. The Alexandria, Egypt native had six double-doubles in 2018-19 and was only the second Lady Topper to record multiple 20-rebound games with a 21-board performance at Little Rock.

WKU finished last season 20-15 under Greg Collins in his first season as head coach, extending its streak of 20-win seasons to seven straight. The Lady Toppers ended the season tied for third place in C-USA standings and earning the four seed in the conference tournament.

The Lady Toppers received an invite to the WNIT in 2018-19 and advanced to the third round, the furthest advancing team out of the league's five teams competing in the postseason.

Collins brings back veteran experience with 86 percent of his offensive production from last season back. WKU returns top scorers Givens, Elgedawy, C-USA All-Freshmen Team honoree Meral Abdelgawad, Whitney Creech, Alexis Brewer and Sherry Porter.

WKU also welcomes two transfers and three freshmen into the mix along with Myriah Haywood and Sandra Skinner, both of whom sat out the 2018-19 season.

WKU HOSTS KENTUCKY WESLEYAN FOR HALLOWEEN NIGHT EXHIBITION

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team will unofficially tip off the season on Halloween night against Kentucky Wesleyan for an exhibition game inside E.A. Diddle Arena. Tip is set for 7 p.m. and doors open at 6 p.m. Admission is free.

Local trick-or-treaters are invited to come and trick-or-treat prior to the game on the lower concourse of the Arena starting at 6 p.m.

Thursday's matchup is the only preseason tune-up for the Lady Toppers prior to the start of the 2019-20 season. WKU's first official game is November 5 against No. 9 Louisville at the KFC Yum! Center. That game is set for a 6 p.m. tip.

Last season, the Lady Toppers secured their seventh-straight 20-win season tying a program record for the longest streak. WKU made a run in the WNIT to close the season, topping Miami (Ohio) and Morehead State before falling to Ohio in the third round.

This season, WKU was picked to finish third in Conference USA by the league coaches, behind 2019 regular season and tournament champion Rice and Middle Tennessee. The Lady Toppers finished tied for third last season alongside the Blue Raiders.

Redshirt senior Dee Givens and junior Raneem Elgedawy were selected to the C-USA Preseason All-Conference team. The preseason team is made up of eight individuals. Givens was C-USA's third leading scorer last season, averaging 17.6 points per game, and earned a C-USA All-Conference First Team and All-Defensive Team nods at the end of the season. Elgedawy earned C-USA All-Conference Second Team honors at the end of last season. She had six double-doubles in 2018-19 and was only the second Lady Topper to record multiple 20-rebound games with a 21-board performance at Little Rock.

Overall, the Lady Toppers return 86 percent of its offensive production from a season ago, including all five of the top scorers from 2018-19.

Senior point guard Whitney Creech is back for her final season on The Hill. Creech posted 117 assists last season compared to only 51 turnovers, good for a 2.29 assist-to-turnover ratio.

C-USA All-Freshmen team member from last season, Meral Abdelgawad will return looking to add on to her successful rookie campaign. Junior Sherry Porter played in all 35 games last season and scored in double-figures seven time, including 20 points against Marshall. Alexis Brewer burst on the scene last season, ending 2018-19 on a hot streak. She'll miss the beginning of the 2019-20 season with an injury but head coach Greg Collins hopes to have her back soon.

The Lady Toppers welcomed a few newcomers for the upcoming season. Myriah Haywood and Sandra Skinner will be familiar faces for the fans. Both Haywood and Skinner redshirted the 2018-19 season. Skinner is a transfer from VCU and sat out the season due to transfer rules. Haywood sat out due to injury.

WKU also welcomed transfers Fatou Pouye and Bree Glover in the offseason. Pouye comes to Bowling Green from South Georgia Tech, a junior college, and will be eligible for the 2019-20 season. Glover last played at Ole Miss and is from nearby Glasgow, Kentucky.

The 2019 signing class included Tori Hunter, Hya Haywood and De'Myla Brown.

WKU last hosted Kentucky Wesleyan for an exhibition during the 2013-14 season. The Lady Toppers earned an 87-49 win against the Panthers on Oct. 29, 2013.

Season and single-game tickets are now on sale through the WKU Ticket Office online at WKUTickets.com or by phone at 1-800-5-BIGRED or 745-5222 locally.

LADY TOPPERS SURVIVE HALLOWEEN NIGHT SCARE; DEFEAT KWC 72-60

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team had quite the fright on Halloween night. The Lady Toppers found themselves down early against Kentucky Wesleyan in WKU's lone exhibition game of the season, but a second half comeback helped earn a 72-60 victory.

"I like playing Kentucky Wesleyan because they're well-coached, they're a good team, they were in the NCAA Tournament last year, and they got five-out and they shoot the three," said head coach Greg Collins. "That was the one style that really bothered us the most last year. UAB plays that way, Marshall plays that way, we lost to Ohio in the WNIT because they played that way. This was a style that if we're going to play bigs, then we have to be able to guard this style. We didn't for a while. Then we started learning and adjusting."

The Panthers were the first to put points on the board over three minutes into the game after both teams struggled early. Dee Givens came right back down the court on the next possession to score WKU's first points. After Kentucky Wesleyan got back ahead by three, Meral Abdelgawad knocked down a trey to tie up the score once again. From there, the Panthers connected on six 3-pointers to take a 26-19 lead into the second quarter.

A few minutes into the second quarter, the Lady Toppers went on a 7-0 run to take the lead for the first time, sparked by a jumper from Myriah Haywood. The Panthers continued to push, retaking the lead and going ahead by as much as eight in the quarter. Sandra Skinner closed out the half with a pair of free throws to bring the score to 42-36 at the break.

Kentucky Wesleyan continued to do damage from beyond the arc in the third quarter, but less often. The Panthers instead used a triple to slow down runs from WKU. Givens connected on a 3-pointer less than a minute into the game but the Panthers had a three of their own to push the score back out to eight. The Lady Toppers cut it to six and Kentucky Wesleyan once again a three for the answer. WKU made an 8-0 run to take the lead late in the quarter, but a Panther three right before the break put Kentucky Wesleyan back up by two heading to the fourth.

The Lady Toppers came alive in the fourth quarter, scoring 21 points and holding the Panthers to just seven. The offensive outburst was sparked by a 14-0 run and four forced turnovers.

Givens led all scorers with 19 points with four 3-pointers. She also added nine rebounds, two assists, a steal and a block. Raneem Elgedawy had a double-double for the Lady Toppers with 15 points and 16 boards. Elgedawy struggled from the floor to start the game, going 1-of-6 in the first half, but made 5-of-6 in the second half.

Sherry Porter turned in a solid performance with 10 points and five rebounds. Whitney Creech had seven assists on the night and six boards.

WKU outrebounded the Panthers, 53-28.

Kentucky Wesleyan made 12 3-pointers on the night. The only teams that made more than that against WKU last season were Louisville, Oklahoma, Iowa and Central Michigan. Those four opponents were the first four on the Lady Topper's 2018-19 schedule.

WKU will have a quick turnaround with the season opener only four days away. The Lady Toppers will take on No. 9 Louisville at the KFC Yum! Center on Nov. 5 at 6 p.m.

Season and single-game tickets are now on sale through the WKU Ticket Office online at WKUTickets.com or by phone at 1-800-5-BIGRED or 745-5222 locally.

WKU OPENS 2019-20 SEASON AT #9 LOUISVILLE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team opens the 2019-20 season on the road at No. 9 Louisville on Tuesday, Nov. 5. Game time is set for 6 p.m. (CST) at KFC Yum! Center.

Tuesday tips the second season of the Greg Collins era. Collins led the Lady Toppers to their seventh consecutive 20-win season in 2018-19 and will look to extend that streak to a program record eight straight in 2019-20.

Collins has veteran experience back this season, highlighted by Conference USA Preseason All-Conference selections Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy. Overall, WKU returns 86 percent of its offensive production from a season ago, including the top five scorers.

The Lady Toppers had a preseason tuneup against Kentucky Wesleyan on Halloween night. After trailing for much of the game, WKU tripled up the Panthers, outscoring them 21-7 in the fourth quarter to secure a 72-60 win. Givens led all scorers in the game with 19 points and nine rebounds. Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor early but bounced back to make five of her next six shots to finish with a double-double on 15 points and 16 boards.

WKU is 35-11 in season openers all-time. Tuesday will be the first true road season opener for the Lady Toppers since the 2015-16 season when they opened the season at Ball State.

WKU and Louisville have met 46 times in the two programs' history. There are only four other opponents that the Lady Toppers have faced that many times. Those programs are Middle Tennessee, Louisiana Tech, Arkansas State and South Alabama.

WKU owns a 25-21 record against the Cardinals, but the Cards have the advantage in Louisville, 12-9.

The Lady Toppers last win against a ranked opponent came in the 2017-18 season opener against Missouri. WKU pulled out a 79-76 win in the 2017 Hawkeye Challenge in Iowa City, Iowa. The Tigers were ranked No. 16 at the time.

The Cardinals are coming off their second straight 30-win season and a trip to the Elite Eight in the 2019 NCAA Tournament. Louisville graduated All-American Asia Durr and several other key contributors from 2018-19, but head coach Jeff Walz brought in the talent to reload for 2019-20.

Season and single-game tickets are now on sale through the WKU Ticket Office online at WKUTickets.com or by phone at 1-800-5-BIGRED or 745-5222 locally.

TIPPING OFF THE 2019-20 SEASON

Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach underway on November 5 versus No. 9 Louisville in the KFC Yum! Center. It will be the second consecutive season WKU has opened the season against the Cardinals. Last season, Louisville made the trip to Bowling Green and recorded a 102-80 win.

The Lady Toppers are coming off their seventh consecutive 20-win season in 2018-19 and will look to extend that streak to a program-record eight straight in 2019-20.

Collins will have veteran experience to rely on in 2019-20, with 86 percent of the offensive production back on the court from the previous season. Those veterans include Conference USA Preseason All-Conference selections Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy along with senior point guard Whitney Creech, redshirt senior Alexis Brewer and 2019 C-USA All-Freshmen Team honoree Meral Abdelgawad.

WKU welcomes some new faces this season as well. Myriah Haywood and Sandra Skinner will be added to the mix after sitting out the 2018-19 season. Junior college transfer Fatou Pouye also joins the Lady Toppers and will be eligible for the 2019-20 season. Collins and his staff signed three in the 2019 signing class which includes Tori Hunter, De'Myla Brown and Hya Haywood.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

▶ WKU and Louisville have met 46 times in the two program's history. The Lady Toppers have only played four other opponents that many times (Middle Tennessee, Louisiana Tech, Arkansas State, and South Alabama). The Lady Toppers own a 25-21 record in the series history, but the Cardinals are 12-9 against WKU in Louisville.

▶ The Lady Toppers were picked third in the preseason C-USA coaches' poll. WKU has met or exceeded their C-USA preseason expectations in each of the last three years. In 2016-17, WKU won the tournament title after being picked first. They repeated as champions in 2017-18 after a second-place pick and finished in a tie for third place last season after being picked fourth.

▶ WKU is 35-11 in season openers all-time. Tuesday will be the first true road season opener for the Lady Toppers since the 2015-16 when they opened the season at Ball State.

GAME NOTES

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

WKU PICKED THIRD IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After finishing last season in a tie for third place with Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers have been picked to finish third in the C-USA Coaches Preseason Poll.

WKU will be seeking to meet or outperform its preseason expectations for the fourth straight season.

FIFTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first four seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 71-17 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record this season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together a 10-6 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted an 84-18 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers ended the regular season with a win at home over archrival Middle Tennessee on March 7.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last five seasons. With her start against Southern Illinois last season, Meral Abdelgawad continued the streak for the Lady Toppers that began with Tashia Brown starting five games in the 2014-15 campaign. Last season, both Raneem Elgedawy (33) and Sherry Porter (15) started at least five games.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has been on staff, the Lady Toppers have battled 16 ranked opponents, coming away with a victory over one in three of the last four seasons.

This season, the Lady Toppers will tipoff the season against a ranked opponent, taking on No. 9 Louisville right out of the gate.

GAME NOTES

national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasket competition.

Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo has combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Despite having her streak of 38 consecutive made free throws snapped against Ball State in 2018-19, Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869).

STEALING AWAY

Dee Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game in 2018-19, a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

THAT 70'S SHOW

In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last three seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 60-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 34-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

PLAYING PERCENTAGES

WKU enjoyed one of its best shooting seasons last year in recent memory, hitting the 50 percent mark from the floor in 14 games.

The Lady Toppers shot 50 percent or better in six straight games from Dec. 29 through Jan. 19, its longest such streak since at least the 1987-88 campaign.

Since Greg Collins has been on The Hill in 2012-13, WKU is 37-4 when shooting 50 percent or better.

FIRST-TIME PHENOM

Among the 23 first-time Division I head coaches this season, Greg Collins finished third with his 20 victories, trail-

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY: ONE OF THE NATION'S TOUGHEST PLACES TO PLAY

ing only Minnesota's Lindsay Whalen and Northern Colorado's Jenny Huth.

More impressively, no other team under a first-time head coach is averaging more points per game than the Lady Toppers, who are scoring at a 72.5 per game clip.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014-15.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, 20-win seasons, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

NEWEST MEMBER OF THE CLUB

With her 23-point performance at Marshall on Feb. 23, Dee Givens became the 40th member of Lady Topper Basketball's 1,000-point club and now has 1,131 points for her career.

Givens became the seventh player to join the club since Greg Collins has been on staff in 2012-13, joining Chastity Gooch, Alexis Govan, Kendall Noble, Micah Jones, Tashia Brown and Ivy Brown.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 points per game, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple three-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win seasons, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

20-WIN SEASONS, PART 2

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers stay on the road, traveling to Macon, Georgia to face Mercer on Friday, Nov. 8. That game is set for a 3:30 p.m. (CST) tip.

LADY TOPPERS STAY ON THE ROAD TO TAKE ON MERCER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team stays on the road to take on Mercer on Friday afternoon. Tip off is set for 3:30 p.m. (CST). The game will be broadcast on ESPN3.

The Lady Toppers (0-1, 0-0 C-USA) will be looking to bounce back after a loss at No. 9 Louisville on Tuesday night to open the season. WKU kept in distance to the Cardinals for most of the game, even cutting it to an eight-point game late in the third quarter, but Louisville pulled away in the fourth for a 75-56 win.

Junior Sherry Porter led WKU in scoring with 15 points on the night. Dee Givens added 13 and Whitney Creech had 10. Raneem Elgedawy pulled down a team-high eight rebounds in the contest.

WKU is opening the season with two true road games for the first time since the 1977-78 season when the Lady Toppers traveled to Vanderbilt and Belmont in the first two games.

Mercer (1-0, 0-0 SoCon) and WKU have played only one other time in series history. Previously, they met in the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic on Nov. 24, 2017. The Lady Toppers escaped with a narrow 67-62 victory. Creech, Elgedawy, Porter and Givens all played in that game. Creech had 10 points and four rebounds, Porter had five assists and Elgedaway had seven points and seven rebounds as a freshman.

Givens moved into a tie for 31st place on WKU's all-time scoring list against Louisville. She's now up to 1,144 career points as a Lady Topper. She also moved up on the career 3-pointers made list to eighth place with 166 total.

Mercer started the season with a 74-47 win against LaGrange on Tuesday. Shannon Titus, and PJ Wintermyer led all scorers with 14 points each. Jordan McLaughlin and Amoria Neal-Tysor also added 10 points.

WKU GETS IN WIN COLUMN WITH 75-62 VICTORY AT MERCER

MACON, Ga. — The WKU women's basketball team earned a hard-fought win on Friday night at Mercer, playing in front of a football homecoming crowd and in the second game of a doubleheader with the men's team. The Lady Toppers escaped Macon with a 75-62 win after a clutch fourth quarter.

WKU was led by four different double-digit scorers on the night. Raneem Elgedawy logged her 12th double-double of her career with 18 points and 19 rebounds. Whitney Creech poured in 17 points, eight of which came in the final quarter. Meral Abdelgawad added 15 points and Dee Givens narrowly missed a double-double with 10 points and nine rebounds.

The Lady Toppers' win was an impressive one, coming against a NCAA Tournament team in both the 2018-19 and 2017-18 seasons. In 2018-19, the Bears nearly upset 2-seed Iowa. Mercer has gone 105-28 in the last five seasons, including a 48-10 home record with WKU being the 10th.

Mercer scored first, but WKU scored the next 12 points to take the lead. That run was fueled by a pair of 3-pointers from Meral Abdelgawad, Raneem Elgedawy who scored four points and capped by a breakaway layup from Dee Givens after a steal. The Bears didn't go away though, outscoring the Lady Toppers 12-9 in the remainder of the period.

The Lady Toppers struggle offensively in the second period. A free throw from Elgedawy and a three from Whitney Creech opened scoring in the quarter, but outside of a Myriah Haywood free throw WKU didn't score again until the final minute of the frame.

A one-point game going into the third quarter, neither team was able to separate from the other. Play was up-and-down the floor in long stretches for much of the quarter, seeing the Bears outscore the Lady Toppers 20-19 to go into the final quarter tied at 47.

WKU meant business in the fourth quarter, scoring 28 points in the frame. That mark is the most in a quarter for the Lady Toppers since scoring 30 against UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019. The game was still tied at the 6:36 mark, 52-all. Elgedawy made good on an and-one situation, but Mercer answered right back with a layup. Creech hit came down and knocked down a 3-pointer and Abdelgawad score a contested layup on the very next play. From there, a Sherry Porter three and seven made free throws put the Bears away. Of those seven free throws, five of them came from Creech.

There were seven tied and five lead changes throughout the game overall.

The Lady Toppers pulled down 51 rebounds in the game compared to Mercer's 27.

WKU will be back in action on Wednesday, Nov. 13 against Belmont in the home opener. That game is set for a 6 p.m. tip.

LADY TOPPERS HOST (RV) BELMONT FOR HOME OPENER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — After playing the first two games of the season on the road, the WKU women's basketball team will host (RV) Belmont on Wednesday night for the 2019 home opener. Tip-off is set for 6 p.m. inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

For those who can't make it out to Diddle on Wednesday, the game will be broadcast on ESPN3 with Jeff Younglove (play-by-play) and John Butler (color). Fans can also tune in to the radio broadcast by Brett Williams (play-by-play) on 102.7FM or 1450AM.

WKU (1-1, 0-0 C-USA) is coming off of a hard-fought 75-62 win at Mercer last Friday. The Lady Toppers handed the Bears only their 10th home loss in the last five seasons. Raneem Elgedawy led WKU with her 12th career double-double with 18 points and 19 rebounds. Three other Lady Toppers joined Elgedawy in double figures. Whitney Creech had 17, Meral Abdelgawad had 15 and Dee Givens added 10.

Belmont (2-0, 0-0 MVC) has started out the season on a hot streak, defeating Chattanooga to open the season and then dominating UCF, 72-37, on Saturday. The Bruins earned a vote in the AP Poll this week with their perfect start to the season. Ellie Harmeyer is averaging 18.0 points per game and 16.0 rebounds per game through the first two games for the Bruins. Conley Chinn (11.5), Maddie Wright (11.0) and Maura Muensterman (10.0) are all also averaging double figure points.

WKU and Belmont have met 11 times in series history, but not since December 29, 2015 when the Lady Toppers posted an 80-65 win in Diddle Arena. WKU has won the last eight-straight meetings between the two teams and owns a 4-2 record in Bowling Green against the Bruins.

The Lady Toppers are 38-8 in home openers since the 1973-74 season, winning five of the last seasons. Those five wins came against Northern Kentucky (2012), Austin Peay (2013), Central Arkansas (2014), Louisville (2015) and Alabama A&M (2016). Overall, WKU is 84-18 at home since the 2012-13 season.

WKU will stay at home for the next two games with Central Michigan and Little Rock coming to town. The Lady Toppers will take on Central Michigan on Sunday, November 17 and will face Little Rock on Sunday, November 24. Both games are set for 2 p.m. tip-offs.

WKU TOPS (RV) BELMONT IN CONVINCING 77-46 WIN

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team earned a 31-point win against a Belmont team that received a vote in the latest AP Poll. The Lady Toppers defeated the Bruins, 77-46, in Diddle Arena on Wednesday night behind double-digit performances from four different players including a 24-point display by Dee Givens.

"Tonight, I thought they played within themselves on the offensive end. They were unselfish. That's why Dee Givens had a great night, because the team played well. We had Whitney Creech and Sherry Porter step up and make big shots at Mercer, so now you can't just guard Dee Givens you have to guard the whole team. That makes us better."

WKU improves to 2-1 on the season and 9-3 all-time against Belmont. The Lady Toppers handed Belmont its first loss of the season, dropping the Bruins to 2-1 on the year.

Givens led all scorers with her 24 points. She filled out the stat line with six rebounds and five steals on the night as well. She moved up WKU's all-time scoring list into 27th place with 1,178 career points and she now has the seventh most career 3-pointers in WKU history with 172.

Whitney Creech reached double figures for the fourth straight game, dating back to last season. She had 15 points on the night along with six assists. On the season, Creech is 4-8 from beyond the arc, outdoing her 2-10 mark for all of last season.

Sherry Porter added 12 points, including a pair of 3-pointers. She also had seven rebounds and four assists in the game. Raneem Elgedawy was the final Lady Topper in double figures, scoring 11 points along with seven rebounds and four blocks.

Once again, WKU jumped out to an early lead this time taking a 12-2 advantage into the first media timeout. The Lady Toppers would go on to outscore Belmont 22-8 in the first period.

The Bruins were able to cut the game to single digits in the second quarter with a 9-0 run, but Creech and Givens splashed three-straight threes to put a stop to the run.

The Lady Toppers used a 12-0 run beginning in the third quarter and stretching to the fourth to push the lead into the 30-point range.

WKU forced Belmont into 24 turnovers on the night, while only making nine of their own. That's the fewest for WKU since only making seven miscues against Rice last season (Feb. 7).

Belmont's 46 points were the fewest for the Bruins since a 45-38 win at Middle Tennessee in November of last season. Forty-six is the fewest points WKU has allowed since holding Morgan State to 43 last season.

The Bruins came into the game shooting 41.3 percent from 3-point range on the season, but WKU held them to 13.3 percent (2-15) on the night.

WKU's three opponents so far this season were a combined 83-19 last season and all three teams reached the NCAA Tournament.

WKU will be home for the next two games with Central Michigan and Little Rock coming to Diddle Arena in the upcoming games. WKU will face Central Michigan on Sunday at 2 p.m. and then Little Rock on November 24 at 2 p.m.

LADY TOPPERS HOST CENTRAL MICHIGAN FOR SUNDAY MATINEE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team will continue its homestand with a Sunday matchup against Central Michigan on Sunday. Game time is set for 2 p.m.

The game will be broadcast on ESPN+ with Jeff Younglove (play-by-play) and John Butler (color) on the call. Fans can also tune in to the radio broadcast by Brett Williams (play-by-play) on 102.7FM or 1450AM.

WKU (2-1, 0-0 C-USA) will be looking to win its third-straight game after victories against Mercer and (RV) Belmont. The Lady Toppers are 2-1 to start the season for the first time since the 2016-17 season.

Central Michigan (0-2, 0-0 MAC) fell against No. 9 Louisville on Thursday, 76-63. The Chippewas opened the season with a high-scoring loss to Green Bay, 111-105.

Last season, WKU and Central Michigan met for the first time in series history and the Chippewas came away with a 108-90 win.

Defense has been a priority for the Lady Toppers this season, holding opponents to 61.0 points per game through three games. WKU is also forcing 20 turnovers per game and 10.7 steals per game. Dee Givens has 11 steals so far this season, leading Conference USA in the category and ranking 20th in the nation.

On Wednesday, WKU dominated in a 77-46 win against a Belmont team that received a vote in the most recent AP Poll. Givens led all scorers in the game with 24 points. Whitney Creech (15), Sherry Porter (12) and Raneem Elgedawy (11) joined Givens in double figures.

Sunday's game continues a tough non-conference schedule WKU put together. The Lady Toppers' first five opponents were all 2019 NCAA Tournament participants and four of the five were picked to win their respective conferences (Louisville, Mercer, Belmont and Little Rock). The first five teams combined for a 129-38 record last season.

WKU SCORCHES IN 93-58 WIN AGAINST CENTRAL MICHIGAN

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Three-straight wins and a perfect 2-0 at home to start the 2019-20 season, the WKU women's basketball team continues to roll with a 93-58 win against Central Michigan on Sunday afternoon in E.A. Diddle Arena.

WKU improves to 3-1 on the season, the best start through four games since the 2015-16 season. It's also the first time since the 2015-16 season the Lady Toppers start the season 2-0 at home.

"I didn't know (we would be 3-1 to start the season)," said Collins. "I believed in what we were doing. I knew we were doing things the right way. I didn't know if it would kick in now or later. Right now they feel confident in what we're doing. I'm not just pleased about the score, obviously I like the wins, but I'm pleased with how the players are approaching the process of what we're doing. They're focused on their job. Whatever their job is, they're doing it to the best of their ability. The winning will take care of itself if you do your job."

It was the second straight 30-plus point win for WKU after defeating (RV) Belmont 77-46 on Wednesday. Both Belmont and Central Michigan are known for their high-scoring offenses, but the Lady Toppers held the two teams to less an average of 52.0 points.

"(Our offense) is clicking because we aren't really worried about our offense," said senior forward Dee Givens. "We focus on defense. When we huddle, I always say, 'defense first'. Then we know our offense will come."

Givens was the leading scorer in the game with 21 points on the day. She connected on four 3-pointers as well as pulling down seven rebounds. With 1,199 career points, Givens moves up to 26th on WKU's all-time scoring list.

Whitney Creech added 18 points and four assists. It's the fifth-straight game of double digits for Creech, dating back to last season. That's the longest stretch of her career with double digit points. Sherry Porter was 4-of-5 from 3-point range on the night and finished with 17 points. Raneem Elgedawy picked up her 13th career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

After Central Michigan took an early 4-0 lead, the Lady Toppers surged back and wouldn't trail again after the 6:33 mark of the first quarter. Porter got the scoring going for WKU with her first three of the night. She hit her second just a few minutes later to put WKU ahead by one and that was the lead that would hold. Her 3-pointer was part of a stretch of nine straight made field goals for the Lady Toppers, including an 8-0 run that featured Porter's third 3-pointer and a triple from Givens.

Central Michigan didn't go away and outscored WKU 14-11 in the second period. The Chippewas ended the frame on a 7-0 run to cut the lead down to six points.

"We jumped out to a lead and Central Michigan responded," said head coach Greg Collins. "They responded by being more physical and we didn't respond by being stronger not just physically but mentally. We talked about that at halftime and I was proud of how all the players came out focused in the second half. They didn't let physical play bother them and they actually kind of used it to their advantage."

The two teams came out in the third quarter and traded baskets for a few minutes, but the Lady Toppers ended the period by outscoring Central Michigan 11-2 in the final three minutes to go ahead by 22. The fourth quarter WKU outscored the Chippewas 26-13.

WKU received a boost from bench play on the night, getting 22 points from the reserves. Sandra Skinner played solid minutes, putting up eight points and getting six rebounds. Myriah Haywood had six points and three rebounds. Freshman De'Myla Brown scored her first collegiate points, finishing with six points on the night.

The Lady Toppers will be back in E.A. Diddle Arena to conclude a three-game homestand against Little Rock on Sunday, November 24 at 2 p.m.

LADY TOPPERS CLOSE OUT 3-GAME HOMESTAND WITH LITTLE ROCK SUNDAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team will conclude a three-game homestand on Sunday against Little Rock. The game is set to tipoff at 2 p.m. in E.A. Diddle Arena.

The Lady Toppers (3-1, 0-0 C-USA) have won three-straight games coming into Sunday's tilt, starting the season 3-1 for the first time since the 2015-16 season. The latest two wins for WKU came by 30-plus point margins, the first time the Lady Toppers have recorded back-to-back 30-point wins since the 2014-15 season.

Little Rock (1-4, 0-0 Sun Belt) has had a tough start to the season, but has faced challenging opposition with games against No. 6/7 Texas A&M, Rice and LSU to open the season. The Trojans are currently 0-2 against Conference USA teams this season after losses to Rice and Florida Atlantic most recently.

WKU and Little Rock have met 30 times in series history with most of those games coming during WKU's stint in the Sun Belt Conference. The Lady Toppers are 23-7 against the Trojans all-time and own a 10-2 record in Bowling Green.

WKU has won two straight against Little Rock, including last season's 68-56 win in Little Rock. Raneem Elgedawy had 17 points and 21 rebounds in that game and Dee Givens had 22 points.

In the Lady Toppers' last outing, Dee Givens led the way in scoring for the second consecutive game with 21 points. Raneem Elgedawy had her second double-double of the season with 10 points and 10 rebounds. Whitney Creech reached double-figure scoring for the fifth-straight game with 18 points. Sherry Porter had 17 points in the win.

WKU NOTCHES FOURTH-STRAIGHT WIN, DEFEATING LITTLE ROCK 77-58

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Raneem Elgedawy recorded her third double-double of the season with 22 points and 10 rebounds to lead the WKU women's basketball team to its fourth straight win. The Lady Toppers are off to a 4-1 start to the season, the best through five games since the 2013-14 season.

"When we came into the season, we knew it was going to be a tough schedule," said senior guard Whitney Creech. "We didn't know what our record would be at this point, but we're just really proud of how much our team has grown since that Kentucky Wesleyan (exhibition) game to now. I think we're coming together on offense and we take pride on defense."

The Lady Toppers have seemingly bought into the theory of defense leads to offense. So far this season, WKU has held three opponents to 60 points or less, going 3-0 in those games. To add on that, the Lady Toppers are 37-0 over the last four seasons when holding opponents to below 60.

In WKU's four wins, the Lady Toppers are holding opponents to an average of 56 points while scoring an average of 80.5 themselves.

"I'm real happy where we are in our learning process," said head coach Greg Collins. "You saw tonight that Fatou (Pouye) and Myriah (Haywood) are both playing better. They're learning. That's what you want to do. You want to keep your team growing and improving as the season goes on."

WKU jumped out to an early lead, going ahead by as much as seven in the first quarter. That lead dwindled in the second quarter and Little Rock was able to come back and claim a lead, but the Lady Toppers outscored the Trojans 8-2 in the final two minutes of the half to take a two-point lead into the break.

With just under five minutes left in the third quarter, Sherry Porter knocked a 3-pointer that would start a 13-2 scoring run for the Lady Toppers that put them ahead by 11 going into the final quarter. WKU outscored Little Rock 23-15 in the fourth.

Elgedawy's 22 points were a season high for the junior. She made 9-of-11 of her shots from the field, including 2-of-2 from beyond the arc.

Creech reached double figures for the sixth straight game with 17 points along with five rebounds, four steals and three assists. Fatou Pouye scored a career high 13 points and pulled down seven rebounds.

WKU will hit the road for the St. Mary's Thanksgiving Tournament next week. The Lady Toppers take on Tulsa on Friday, November 29 and then face the host team St. Mary's on Saturday, November 30. WKU will be back in E.A. Diddle Arena on December 4 when the Lady Toppers host Oklahoma.

Season tickets and single-game tickets for Lady Topper basketball games are now on sale. Tickets can be purchased online (here) or by calling 1-800-5-BIGRED. Tickets can also be purchased in-person at the WKU Ticket Office located in E.A. Diddle Arena.

WKU's first five opponents combined for a 129-38 record last season.

The Lady Toppers have a current win home win streak of five games after ending last season with wins over archrival Middle Tennessee and Morehead State and then Belmont, Central Michigan and Little Rock in 2019-20. That streak is the longest since WKU rattled off 11-straight home wins in 2017-18.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

GAME NOTES

SIXTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first five seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 70-16 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record in 2018-19.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, including junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its first five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

Since Greg Collins has taken over as head coach, the Lady Toppers have battled six ranked opponents. Since Collins has been on staff, WKU has faced 17 total ranked teams.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Last season, Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

The Lady Toppers are averaging 75.6 points per game so far in 2019-20. WKU has averaged 70 or more points in each of the last seven seasons.

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Despite having her streak of 38 consecutive made free throws snapped against Ball State in 2018-19, Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage in 2018-19 ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869). Her career mark of .850 (249-of-293) would be the best in program history.

STEALING AWAY

So far this season, Dee Givens has 14 steals through six games.

Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game, in 2018-19 a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players. Her 99 steals were the second most of any WKU player in a single season.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

The redshirt senior is 21 steals away from entering the top 10 all-time at WKU.

THAT 70'S SHOW

So far this season, the Lady Toppers have held five of six teams played below 70 points, winning all five of those matchups. In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last four seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 65-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 37-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU in 2019, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

LEADING THE WAY AS AN ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as one of the premier women's basketball programs in the region. WKU leads local programs in all-time wins and 20-win seasons.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 pts/gm, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple 3-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT in 2019, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers will return home to face Oklahoma at E.A. Diddle Arena. That game is set for December 4 at 6 p.m.

LADY TOPPERS' COMEBACK FALLS SHORT IN OVERTIME AT SAINT MARY'S

MORAGA, Calif. — WKU and Saint Mary's provided fans with an exciting Saturday afternoon in McKeon Pavilion. The Lady Toppers came back from a 16-point deficit to force overtime against the home team, but would eventually fall 80-73.

WKU falls to 5-2 on the season, skidding a five-game winning streak with the loss. Saint Mary's improves to 3-4 after a tough non-conference schedule so far.

Raneem Elgedawy was one point shy of her career high with 27 points. She crashed the board for 13 rebounds, earning her fourth straight double-double and fifth of the season.

Whitney Creech had her first 20-point game of the season and only the second of her career with 20 points. She also had a season-high seven rebounds, three assists and three steals. Her 17 steals this season lead the team.

Dee Givens added 14 points and five rebounds. Meral Abdelgawad was the fourth Lady Topper in double figures with 10 points. She also had six rebounds.

Elgedawy scored the first seven points for WKU and had 10 points in the first period. The Lady Toppers jumped out to a four-point lead before an 8-0 run by Saint Mary's put them ahead. Elgedawy knocked down her third 3-pointer of the season to stop the bleeding for WKU at the end of the quarter.

Saint Mary's caught fire from beyond the arc in the second quarter, connecting on six 3-pointers to outscore the Lady Toppers 24-13 in the frame. Creech took over for Elgedawy, scoring seven of those points in the quarter.

Foul trouble started to plague Saint Mary's in the third quarter and WKU cashed in with nine made free throws in the frame. At the 6:03 mark, the Gaels took their largest lead of the game going ahead by 16. From that point, WKU turned up the intensity and outscored Saint Mary's 37-16 from that point through the end of regulation, including an 8-0 run to end the fourth quarter and tie up the game forcing overtime. Creech had a look before the end of regulation, but the ball rolled out as the buzzer sounded.

In overtime Saint Mary's came out and hit back-to-back 3-pointers putting WKU in a deficit right away. Ultimately, the Gaels would win by seven.

The Lady Toppers return home for the final non-conference home game of the season on Wednesday, Dec. 4 against Oklahoma. Tip-off is set for 4 p.m. Tickets for that game are being offered at a special promotional price of $1 and the first 1,000 fans will receive a WKU Crazy Hair hat.

Season tickets and single-game tickets for Lady Topper basketball games are now on sale. Tickets can be purchased online (here) or by calling 1-800-5-BIGRED. Tickets can also be purchased in-person at the WKU Ticket Office located in E.A. Diddle Arena.

TIPPING OFF THE 2019-20 SEASON

Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach in 2019-20. Collins and the Lady Toppers tipped off the season at No. 9 Louisville on Tuesday, opening the season against the Cardinals for the second consecutive season. Louisville came away with a 75-56 win, but the game was closer than the final score much of the game including when the Lady Toppers cut it to eight late in the third quarter.

WKU was led in scoring by junior Sherry Porter who had 15 points in the contest. Dee Givens added 13 and Whitney Creech had 10. The Lady Toppers struggled from the floor on Tuesday, shooting 33.3 percent from the field. WKU shot below 40 percent from the field only eight times last season and was 2-6 in those games.

The Lady Toppers are coming off their seventh consecutive 20-win season in 2018-19 and will look to extend that streak to a program-record eight straight in 2019-20.

For the first time since the 1977-78 season, WKU kicks off the season with two true road games before playing a home game. In 1977, the Lady Toppers traveled to Vanderbilt and Belmont to open the season.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ WKU and Mercer have met only one other time in the two programs' histories. The Lady Toppers took on the Bears in the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic on Nov. 24, 2017. WKU narrowly escaped with a 67-62 win. Whitney Creech, Raneem Elgedawy, Sherry Porter and Dee Givens all played in that game.
- ▶ The Lady Toppers were picked third in the preseason C-USA coaches' poll. WKU has met or exceeded their C-USA preseason expectations in each of the last three years. In 2016-17, WKU won the tournament title after being picked first. They repeated as champions in 2017-18 after a second-place pick and finished in a tie for third place last season after being picked fourth.
- ▶ WKU is 6-5 against teams from the state of Georgia all time.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

WKU PICKED THIRD IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After finishing last season in a tie for third place with Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers have been picked to finish third in the C-USA Coaches Preseason Poll.

WKU will be seeking to meet or outperform its preseason expectations for the fourth straight season.

FIFTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first four seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 71-17 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record this season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together a 10-6 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted an 84-18 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers ended the regular season with a win at home over archrival Middle Tennessee on March 7.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last five seasons. With her start against Southern Illinois last season, Meral Abdelgawad continued the streak for the Lady Toppers that began with Tashia Brown starting five games in the 2014-15 campaign. Last season, both Raneem Elgedawy (33) and Sherry Porter (15) started at least five games.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has been on staff, the Lady Toppers have battled 16 ranked opponents, coming away with a victory over one in three of the last four seasons.

This season, the Lady Toppers will tipoff the season against a ranked opponent, taking on No. 9 Louisville right out of the gate.

GAME NOTES

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers have forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo has combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Despite having her streak of 38 consecutive made free throws snapped against Ball State in 2018-19, Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869).

STEALING AWAY

Dee Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game in 2018-19, a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

THAT 70'S SHOW

In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last three seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 60-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 34-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

PLAYING PERCENTAGES

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY: ONE OF THE NATION'S TOUGHEST PLACES TO PLAY

12.	State College, Pa. (Penn State)	Big 10	434-105	80.52%

The Lady Toppers shot 50 percent or better in six straight games from Dec. 29 through Jan. 19, its longest such streak since at least the 1987-88 campaign.

Since Greg Collins has been on The Hill in 2012-13, WKU is 37-4 when shooting 50 percent or better.

FIRST-TIME PHENOM

Among the 23 first-time Division I head coaches this season, Greg Collins finished third with his 20 victories, trailing only Minnesota's Lindsay Whalen and Northern Colorado's Jenny Huth.

More impressively, no other team under a first-time head coach is averaging more points per game than the Lady Toppers, who are scoring at a 72.5 per game clip.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper en-

LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, 20-win seasons, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014-15.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 points per game, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple three-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win seasons, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

20-WIN SEASONS, PART 2

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers will host Belmont for the home opener on Wednesday, Nov. 13. Tip off is set for 6 p.m. at E.A. Diddle Arena.

WKU Lady Toppers at Mercer Bears
Postgame Notes
November 8, 2019
Hawkins Arena; Macon, Ga.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 75, Mercer 62

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 1-1 on the season and 7-5 against teams from Georgia.
- The Lady Toppers now own a 2-0 record against Mercer, winning the first go-around in November 2017 at the Georgia State Thanksgiving Classic.
- Heading into today's game the Bears had a 48-9 home record in the last five seasons.

Team Notes

- WKU used the starting lineup of Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Raneem Elgedawy, Sherry Porter and Meral Abdelgawad for the first time this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Mercer scored the first points of the game, but the Lady Toppers responded by scoring the next 12 points to take an early lead. The Bears clawed their way back into the game, but that early deficit that WKU was able to build helped down the stretch when the Lady Toppers struggled to score in the second quarter.
- The Lady Toppers led the Bears, 28-27, at the half.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: With the game tied with a little over six minutes left, the Lady Toppers had a few players take control of the game and WKU outscored the Bears 23-10 in the final minutes of the game. In that stretch, Sherry Porter hit two 3-pointers, Meral Abdelgawad had two layups, Raneem Elgedawy knocked down three free throws and Whitney Creech hit a three and made five free throws to put the bears away.
- There were seven ties and five lead changes in the game.
- WKU nearly doubled Mercer in rebounds, pulling down 51 boards compared to the Bears' 27. Eighteen of those rebounds were offensive.
- The Lady Toppers improved their shooting percentage from the first game, shooting 42.9 percent on the night and 47.1 from three. In the fourth quarter, WKU was 4-of-4 from beyond the arc and 72.7 from the free throw line.

Individual Notes

- Elgedawy secured her first double-double of the season with 18 points and 19 rebounds. She also had two steals and a block in the game.
- Creech finished the night with 17 points, the most the senior has scored since putting up 25 points at Indiana in 2017. She was 2-of-2 from 3-point territory and she made 5-of-6 of her free throws. She also had four assists and two rebounds.
- Abdelgawad poured in 15 points on the night, nine in the first half. She was 3-of-5 from beyond the arc. She also pulled down five rebounds.

- Dee Givens nearly had a double-double with 10 points and nine rebounds on the night. She filled out the stat line with five assists and five steals as well. Her 10 points helped her move up the all-time scoring list, putting her in 29th place with 1,154 career points.

- Sandra Skinner was hampered by foul trouble, but contributed four points and seven rebounds while she was in.

2019-20 HOME-OPENING WEEK

Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach in 2019-20. Collins and the Lady Toppers tipped off the season on the road with two true road games for the first time since the 1977-78 season.

WKU opened the season at No. 9 Louisville, falling to the Cardinals 75-56. Sherry Porter led the Lady Toppers in that game with 15 points. WKU bounced back with a hard-fought 75-62 win at Mercer last Friday. Raneem Elgedawy led WKU with a double-double, scoring 18 points and pulling down 19 boards. Three other Lady Toppers joined her in double-figure scoring. Whitney Creech notched 17 points in the game. Meral Abdelgawad had 15 and Dee Givens added 10.

The Lady Toppers' win at Mercer was only 10th home loss for the Bears in the last five seasons.

After one week of play, Creech has made the second most free throws of any C-USA player, ranking 48th nationally with 11 makes from the charity stripe. Elgedawy's 27 rebounds through two games ranks second in C-USA as well and 18th in the country.

The Lady Toppers are coming off their seventh consecutive 20-win season in 2018-19 and will look to extend that streak to a program-record eight straight in 2019-20.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

► WKU and Belmont have met 11 times in program history dating back to the 1974-75 season. The Lady Toppers have won eight-straight games in the series and own a 4-2 record against the Bruins in Bowling Green. In the most recent meeting, WKU earned a 80-65 win at Diddle Arena on December 29, 2015.

► The Lady Toppers were picked third in the preseason C-USA coaches' poll. WKU has met or exceeded their C-USA preseason expectations in each of the last three years. In 2016-17, WKU won the tournament title after being picked first. They repeated as champions in 2017-18 after a second-place pick and finished in a tie for third place last season after being picked fourth.

► WKU is 38-8 in home openers since the 1973-74 season. The Lady Toppers have won five of the last seven home openers dating back to the 2012-13 season.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

FIFTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first four seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 71-17 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record this season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together a 10-6 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted an 84-18 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers ended the regular season with a win at home over archrival Middle Tennessee on March 7.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last five seasons. With her start against Southern Illinois last season, Meral Abdelgawad continued the streak for the Lady Toppers that began with Tashia Brown starting five games in the 2014-15 campaign. Last season, both Raneem Elgedawy (33) and Sherry Porter (15) started at least five games.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

GAME NOTES

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has been on staff, the Lady Toppers have battled 16 ranked opponents, coming away with a victory over one in three of the last four seasons.

This season, the Lady Toppers will tipoff the season against a ranked opponent, taking on No. 9 Louisville right out of the gate.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers have forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo has combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Despite having her streak of 38 consecutive made free throws snapped against Ball State in 2018-19, Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869).

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY: ONE OF THE NATION'S TOUGHEST PLACES TO PLAY

Bowling Green, Ky. is one of the toughest places in the nation to play, in a study released by the University of Utah Athletic Media Relations office. WKU is one of just 12 programs with a winning percentage over 80.0% in its home city.

STEALING AWAY

Dee Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game in 2018-19, a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

THAT 70'S SHOW

In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last three seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 60-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 34-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

PLAYING PERCENTAGES

WKU enjoyed one of its best shooting seasons last year in recent memory, hitting the 50 percent mark from the floor in 14 games.

The Lady Toppers shot 50 percent or better in six straight games from Dec. 29 through Jan. 19, its longest such streak since at least the 1987-88 campaign.

Since Greg Collins has been on The Hill in 2012-13, WKU is 37-4 when shooting 50 percent or better.

LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, 20-win seasons, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

GAME NOTES

FIRST-TIME PHENOM

Among the 23 first-time Division I head coaches this season, Greg Collins finished third with his 20 victories, trailing only Minnesota's Lindsay Whalen and Northern Colorado's Jenny Huth.

More impressively, no other team under a first-time head coach is averaging more points per game than the Lady Toppers, who are scoring at a 72.5 per game clip.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014-15.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 points per game, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple three-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win seasons, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

20-WIN SEASONS, PART 2

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers will continue their home-opening week on Sunday with Central Michigan. That game will tip at 2 p.m.

2019-20 HOME-OPENING WEEK

Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach in 2019-20. Collins and the Lady Toppers tipped off the first week of the season on the road with two true road games for the first time since the 1977-78 season.

With a 2-1 record heading into Sunday's tilt, the Lady Toppers will be looking to start the season 3-1 for the first time since the 2015-16 season. WKU will also be looking to stay perfect at home in 2019-20 after a win in the home opener on Wednesday.

WKU dominated in a 77-46 win against (RV) Belmont on Wednesday. Dee Givens led all scorers in the game with a season-high 24 points. Whitney Creech (15), Sherry Porter (12), and Raneem Elgedawy (11) joined Givens in double-figures. The Lady Toppers forced Belmont into 24 turnovers while limiting themselves to only nine on the night. WKU held the Bruins to their fewest points in nearly a year, dating back to a 45-38 win at Middle Tennessee on November 19, 2018. Belmont came into the game shooting 41.3 percent from 3-point range, but WKU held the Bruins to 13.3 percent on Wednesday.

Sunday's matchup against Central Michigan is the second installment of a three-game homestand. The conclusion of the home stretch comes next Sunday against Little Rock.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ WKU and Central Michigan met for the first time in series history last season. The Chippeawas won that meeting in Mt. Pleasant, 108-90, on November 17.
- ▶ The Lady Toppers were picked third in the preseason C-USA coaches' poll. WKU has met or exceeded their C-USA preseason expectations in each of the last three years. In 2016-17, WKU won the tournament title after being picked first. They repeated as champions in 2017-18 after a second-place pick and finished in a tie for third place last season after being picked fourth.
- ▶ WKU is 2-4 against teams from the state of Michigan all-time.
- ▶ The Lady Toppers are 2-1 to start the season for the first time since the 2016-17 season.
- ▶ WKU has won three-straight home contests dating back to wins against Middle Tennessee and a WNIT win against Morehead State last season.

TOUGH ROAD

The Lady Toppers didn't take it easy on themselves when making out the 2019-20 non-conference schedule. WKU's first five opponents were 2019 participants in the NCAA Tournament and four of the five were selected to win their respective conferences (Louisville, Mercer, Belmont and Little Rock).

WKU's first five opponents combined for a 129-38 record last season.

TRACKING DEE

Dee Givens became the 40th member of the 1,000 point club last season. With 23 points in the opening week, she moved into 29th place overall.

25. Dianne Depp - 1,240
26. Alicia Polson - 1,195
27. Dee Givens - 1,178

Givens is also top 10 on WKU's career 3-pointers made list as well.

5. Kristina Covington - 193
6. Jamie Walz - 182
7. Dee Givens - 172

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

FIFTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first four seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 71-17 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record this season.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU put together a 10-6 record inside Diddle Arena last season and has posted an 85-18 record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers ended the regular season with a win at home over archrival Middle Tennessee on March 7.

FAST STARTS FOR FRESHMEN

WKU has started a true freshman at least five times in each of the last five seasons. With her start against Southern Illinois last season, Meral Abdelgawad continued the streak for the Lady Toppers that began with Tashia Brown starting five games in the 2014-15 campaign. Last season, both Raneem Elgedawy (33) and Sherry Porter (15) started at least five games.

GAME NOTES

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has been on staff, the Lady Toppers have battled 16 ranked opponents, coming away with a victory over one in three of the last four seasons.

This season, the Lady Toppers will tipoff the season against a ranked opponent, taking on No. 9 Louisville right out of the gate.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers have forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo has combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY: ONE OF THE NATION'S TOUGHEST PLACES TO PLAY

Bowling Green, Ky. is one of the toughest places in the nation to play, in a study released by the University of Utah Athletic Media Relations office. WKU is one of just 12 programs with a winning percentage over 80.0% in its home city.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Despite having her streak of 38 consecutive made free throws snapped against Ball State in 2018-19, Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869).

STEALING AWAY

Dee Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game in 2018-19, a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

THAT 70'S SHOW

In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last three seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 60-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 34-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

LEADING THE WAY AS ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as the premier women's basketball program in the region. Among four area powers, WKU leads in all-time wins, 20-win seasons, Final Four appearances and all-time postseason wins.

PLAYING PERCENTAGES

WKU enjoyed one of its best shooting seasons last year in recent memory, hitting the 50 percent mark from the floor in 14 games.

The Lady Toppers shot 50 percent or better in six straight games from Dec. 29 through Jan. 19, its longest such streak since at least the 1987-88 campaign.

Since Greg Collins has been on The Hill in 2012-13, WKU is 37-4 when shooting 50 percent or better.

FIRST-TIME PHENOM

Among the 23 first-time Division I head coaches this season, Greg Collins finished third with his 20 victories, trailing only Minnesota's Lindsay Whalen and Northern Colorado's Jenny Huth.

More impressively, no other team under a first-time head coach is averaging more points per game than the Lady Toppers, who are scoring at a 72.5 per game clip.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 pts/gm, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple 3-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win seasons, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

20-WIN SEASONS, PART 2

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers will conclude a three-game homestand on Sunday, November 24 against Little Rock in E.A. Diddle Arena. The game is set to tip at 2 p.m.

2019-20 QUICK HITS

Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach in 2019-20. Collins and the Lady Toppers tipped off the first week of the season on the road with two true road games for the first time since the 1977-78 season. Last week, WKU hosted Belmont and Central Michigan to open the home portion of the schedule. The Lady Toppers recorded back-to-back 30-plus point victories in those two games, doing so for the first time since the 2014-15. That season, WKU turned in a 80-43 win against Florida Atlantic and then a 81-42 versus FIU.

With a 3-1 record heading into Sunday's tilt, the Lady Toppers will be looking to start the season 4-1 for the first time since the 2013-14 season. WKU will also be looking to stay perfect at home in 2019-20 after a win in the home opener against Belmont and another victory against Central Michigan last week.

WKU once again dominated in a 93-58 win against Central Michigan in its last outing. Dee Givens led WKU with 21 points, her second straight game with 20-plus points. Whitney Creech extended her streak with double-digit points to five games with 18. Sherry Porter added 17 points in the win and Raneem Elgedawy rounded out the double-digit scorers with 10 points. Elgedawy also had 10 rebounds for her 13th career double-double and second of the season.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ WKU and Little Rock have met 30 times in series history. The Lady Toppers own a 23-7 record against the Trojans, including a 10-2 record in Bowling Green. WKU has won two-straight against Little Rock.
- ▶ The two teams met last season in Little Rock where WKU won 68-56. Dee Givens had 22 points in that matchup and Raneem Elgedawy had 17 points and 21 rebounds.
- ▶ The Lady Toppers are 3-1 to start the season for the first time since the 2015-16 season.
- ▶ WKU has won four-straight home contests dating back to wins against Middle Tennessee and a WNIT win against Morehead State last season. With a win, the Lady Toppers will have a five-game home win streak for the first time since the 2017-18 when WKU rattled off 11-straight wins in Diddle Arena.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

This season, WKU has forced opponents into double-digit turnovers in every game, including two games of 20-plus turnovers for the opposition. Opponents are averaging 19.3 turnovers per game against the Lady Toppers this season.

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

WKU PICKED THIRD IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After finishing last season in a tie for third place with Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers have been picked to finish third in the C-USA Coaches Preseason Poll.

WKU will be seeking to meet or outperform its preseason expectations for the fourth straight season.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

GAME NOTES

SIXTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first five seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 70-16 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record in 2018-19.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, including junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its first five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has taken over as head coach, the Lady Toppers have battled six ranked opponents. Since Collins has been on staff, WKU has faced 17 total ranked teams.

This season, the Lady Toppers tipped off the season against No. 9 Louisville.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Last season, Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

The Lady Toppers are averaging 75.3 points per game so far in 2019-20. WKU has averaged 70 or more points in each of the last seven seasons.

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Despite having her streak of 38 consecutive made free throws snapped against Ball State in 2018-19, Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage in 2018-19 ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869). Her career mark of .850 (249-of-293) would be the best in program history.

STEALING AWAY

So far this season, Dee Givens has 12 steals through four games, giving her the second most steals of any C-USA player.

Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game in 2018-19, a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players. Her 99 steals were the second most of any WKU player in a single season.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

The redshirt senior is 21 steals away from entering the top 10 all-time at WKU.

THAT 70'S SHOW

So far this season, the Lady Toppers have held three of four teams played below 70 points, winning all three of those matchups. In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last four seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 63-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 36-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU in 2019, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

LEADING THE WAY AS AN ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as one of the premier women's basketball programs in the region. WKU leads local programs in all-time wins and 20-win seasons.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 pts/gm, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple 3-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT in 2019, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers will head out west to play in the St. Mary's Thanksgiving Tournament. WKU will face Tulsa first on November 29 followed by a game against the host team, St. Mary's, on November 30.

- WKU improves to 4-1 on the season for the best start through five games since the 2013-14 season. WKU remains perfect in Diddle Arena so far this season with a 3-0 home record. That marks the best home schedule start since the 2015-16 season.
- The Lady Toppers hold a 24-7 lead in the all-time series over Little Rock and improve to 11-2 against the Trojans in Bowling Green.
- WKU extends its home winning streak to five, which dates back to last season with wins over Middle Tennessee at the end of the regular season and Morehead State in the WNIT. That's the longest home-winning streak for WKU since the Lady Toppers rattled off 11-straight in 2017-18.

Team Notes

- WKU used the starting lineup of Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Raneem Elgedawy, Sherry Porter and Meral Abdelgawad for the fourth consecutive game. The group is 4-0 together as starters.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: After taking a lead in the first quarter, WKU was hampered by a scoring drought in the second allowing Little Rock to come back and take the lead. The Lady Toppers turned it back on at the end of the quarter, going on an 8-2 run to close out the half and take a 35-33 lead.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: The start of the third quarter saw both teams go back and forth, but a 13-2 WKU run closed out the third quarter on a strong note and allowed the Lady Toppers to enter the final quarter with a sizeable 54-43 lead.

- Three Lady Toppers scored in double figures, the third-consecutive game in which three or more players have posted double-digit scoring totals.
- The Lady Toppers played ahead for 34:09 of the game, while the Trojans held the lead for just 4:07.
- WKU has scored 70 or more points in all four regular season wins, while holding their opponents in those games to an average of just 56 points.
- The Lady Toppers held Little Rock to 58 points in the game, improving to 37-0 over the last four years when holding opponents below 60 points, including a 3-0 record this season.
- WKU scored a season-high 48 points in the paint.

Individual Notes

- Raneem Elgedawy posted her third double-double of the season and the 14th of her career, scoring 22 points and collecting 10 rebounds. Her 22 points were a season-high and the junior now has 905 career points. Elgedawy also shot a season-best 81.8 percent from the field, scoring on nine of her 11 shots, including shooting 2-of-2 from the 3-point line.
- Whitney Creech shot 67 percent from the field and scored 17 points, reaching double figures in scoring for the sixth straight game dating back to last season. That's the longest streak of double-digit scoring the senior has had in her career. She also added five rebounds and three assists.

- Sherry Porter turned in another solid performance, scoring six points and collecting four rebounds.

- Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach in 2019-20
- Collins and the Lady Toppers tipped off the first week of the season on the road with two true road games for the first time since the 1977-78 season
- WKU hosted Belmont, Central Michigan and Little Rock in a three-game homestand to start the home portion of the schedule. The Lady Toppers recorded back-to-back 30-plus point victories in the first two games, doing so for the first time since the 2014-15, and then following that up with a 19-point win against Little Rock
- With a 4-1 record heading into Friday's tilt, the Lady Toppers will be looking to start the season 5-1 for the first time since the 2012-13 season.
- WKU struggled early against Little Rock, going into halftime with only a two-point lead. The Lady Toppers bounced back in the second half though to claim the win convincingly. Raneem Elgedawy secured her third double-double of the season with a season high 22 points and 10 rebounds. Whitney Creech had 17 points and Fatou had a career-high 13 points.
- After attacking Belmont and Central from long range (18 combined 3-pointers in those games), the Lady Toppers decided to take a different strategy, feeding the post to defeat the more physical Trojans. WKU scored a season-high 48 points in the pain against Little Rock.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ Friday will be the first meeting between WKU and Tulsa in the two programs' histories.

- ▶ The Lady Toppers are 4-1 to start the season for the first time since the 2013-14 season.
- ▶ WKU has won five-straight home contests dating back to wins against Middle Tennessee and a WNIT win against Morehead State last season. The Lady Toppers have a five-game home win streak for the first time since the 2017-18 when WKU rattled off 11-straight wins in Diddle Arena.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU is 3-0 inside Diddle Arena this season after putting together a 10-6 record inside Diddle Arena last year. The Lady Toppers have posted an 88-18 (.830) record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13.

The Lady Toppers have a current win home win streak of five games after ending last season with wins over archrival Middle Tennessee and Morehead State and then Belmont, Central Michigan and Little Rock in 2019-20. That streak is the longest since WKU rattled off 11-straight home wins in 2017-18.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

This season, WKU has forced opponents into double-digit turnovers in every game, including two games of 20-plus turnovers for the opposition. Opponents are averaging 19.2 turnovers per game against the Lady Toppers this season.

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

GAME NOTES

SIXTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first five seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 70-16 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record in 2018-19.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, including junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its first five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has taken over as head coach, the Lady Toppers have battled six ranked opponents. Since Collins has been on staff, WKU has faced 17 total ranked teams.

This season, the Lady Toppers tipped off the season against No. 9 Louisville.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Last season, Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

The Lady Toppers are averaging 75.6 points per game so far in 2019-20. WKU has averaged 70 or more points in each of the last seven seasons.

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Despite having her streak of 38 consecutive made free throws snapped against Ball State in 2018-19, Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage in 2018-19 ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869). Her career mark of .850 (249-of-293) would be the best in program history.

STEALING AWAY

So far this season, Dee Givens has 12 steals through five games.

Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game, in 2018-19 a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players. Her 99 steals were the second most of any WKU player in a single season.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

The redshirt senior is 21 steals away from entering the top 10 all-time at WKU.

THAT 70'S SHOW

So far this season, the Lady Toppers have held four of five teams played below 70 points, winning all four of those matchups. In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last four seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 64-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 37-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU in 2019, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

LEADING THE WAY AS AN ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as one of the premier women's basketball programs in the region. WKU leads local programs in all-time wins and 20-win seasons.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 pts/gm, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple 3-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT in 2019, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers will take on the host team on Saturday. WKU and St. Mary's will square off at 4 PM (CT).

LADY TOPPERS POWER PAST OKLAHOMA

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team needed a bounce-back win and that's exactly what they did against Oklahoma on Wednesday night in E.A. Diddle Arena. The Lady Toppers took down the Sooners, 74-63.

WKU moves to 6-2 on the season remain perfect at home with a 4-0 record in Diddle. Wednesday's win against Oklahoma was the first win by WKU against a Big 12 team since a 61-56 win against Texas on Jan. 11, 1990.

"This kind of defines our team at this point," said head coach Greg Collins. "We needed a big win for our confidence. I told the kids, 'People are going to realize you're legit now.' This program (Oklahoma) in the last 20 years has been one of the most solid basketball programs in the country. They've been to 19 of the last 20 NCAA Tournaments which is pretty phenomenal."

The Lady Toppers have recorded a win against a team from a Power Five (SEC, Big Ten, Big 12, ACC or Pac 12) in five of the last six seasons.

"As far as a win for this program, we've had big wins here at Western Kentucky. In the big scheme of things, it's just another one but for me and this team right now, this is big one for us. To win at home in front of our fans it keeps moving that bar forward."

For the fourth straight game WKU was led in scoring by Raneem Elgedawy. The junior finished the night with 23 points and one rebound shy of a double-double. Averaging 17.1 points this season, Elgedawy now leads Conference USA in scoring.

Dee Givens had an 18-point outing along with seven rebounds and three steals. Whitney Creech continued her streak of double-digit points with 17 on the night. She also had five rebounds, three assists and two steals. Sherry Porter added eight points and had a career-high five steals.

WKU forced Oklahoma into 31 turnovers, the most a Lady Topper team has forced since FIU had 31 on New Year's Day in 2017. WKU has forced every opponent this season into double-digit miscues and now has four games of 20-plus opponent turnovers.

Oklahoma jumped out to an early lead, but WKU hung around for the first quarter. The Lady Toppers came out of the break to start the second quarter with energy though and took their first lead 56 seconds in on back-to-back 3-pointers from Givens. The two teams traded baskets throughout the rest of the frame, but WKU managed to stay ahead and took a 31-30 lead into halftime.

The Lady Toppers opened the third quarter with a 9-0 run and outscored the Sooners 25-10 in the period. WKU took an 18-point lead at the 4:42 mark, its largest of the night. Taylor Robertson, the nation's leading career 3-point percentage shooter, caught fire after being held to zero threes in the game previously. She rattled off three from beyond the arc to keep the Lady Toppers from extending the lead even further.

In the fourth quarter, Oklahoma got the score within three points but Elgedawy knocked down a 3-pointer to stop the bleeding. From there, WKU outscored the Sooners 14-7 to put the game away.

WKU hits the road until 2020 with five-straight away games. That road stretch begins Saturday at Ball State. Tip-off between the Lady Toppers and the Cardinals is 2:30 p.m.

Season tickets and single-game tickets for Lady Topper basketball games are now on sale. Tickets can be purchased online (here) or by calling 1-800-5-BIGRED. Tickets can also be purchased in-person at the WKU Ticket Office located in E.A. Diddle Arena.

WKU STARTS FIVE-GAME ROAD STRETCH AT BALL STATE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team starts a five-game road stretch against Ball State on Saturday. Tipoff is set for 2:30 p.m. (CST) and the game will be broadcast on ESPN+.

The Lady Toppers are 6-2 on the season, coming off of a 74-63 win against Oklahoma on Wednesday night. Ball State is 4-3 on the year, most recently dropping a 67-56 decision to Wisconsin last Friday.

After falling behind in the first quarter against Oklahoma, WKU bounced back to take a one-point lead into halftime. The second half the Lady Toppers were able to gain some breathing room, outscoring the Sooners 43-33. Elgedawy led WKU in scoring for the third straight game with 23 points. Dee Givens (18) and Whitney Creech (17) joined her in double figures.

Saturday's meeting between WKU and Ball State will be the ninth all-time. The Cardinals hold a 5-3 record against the Lady Toppers. The two teams have faced off against each for seven consecutive seasons.

In last season's tilt between the two teams, the Lady Toppers had four double-digit scorers. Givens and Alexis Brewer led the WKU scorers with 19 points each. In a close game that came down to the wire, the Cardinals prevailed 86-83 after a three from WKU missed the mark at the buzzer.

Elgedawy is currently the leading scorer in Conference USA, averaging 17.1 points per game and she's the second leading rebounder in the league, pulling down 10.8 boards per game. Just a point below her, Creech is the fifth-leading scorer in the conference putting up 16.1 points per game. Dee Givens joins them as the third Lady Topper averaging double figures with an average of 15.3 points per game.

Much of WKU's success this season has come from an emphasis on the defensive side of the ball. Through eight games this season, the Lady Toppers have held six teams below 70 points, going a perfect 6-0 in those games. Of those six games, three have featured WKU keeping opponents below 60. In the last four seasons, WKU is 66-7 when holding opponents to below 70 and 37-0 when holding them below 60.

The defensive strategy for the Lady Toppers have been to put pressure on the ball which has caused opposing teams to turn the ball over. Every team this season has had double-digit turnovers against WKU and four of those teams have had 20-plus, including 31 from Oklahoma.

Season tickets and single-game tickets for Lady Topper basketball games are now on sale. Tickets can be purchased online (here) or by calling 1-800-5-BIGRED. Tickets can also be purchased in-person at the WKU Ticket Office located in E.A. Diddle Arena.

GIVENS' 41 POINTS LEAD WKU TO ROAD WIN AT BALL STATE

MUNCIE, Ind. — Dee Givens had a career night, leading the WKU women's basketball team to a 91-86 overtime win at Ball State on Saturday night. Givens poured in 41 points, breaking the Worthen Arena record that has been held for over 25 years.

Givens' 41 points are tied for the second most scoring in a game by a Lady Topper, tying Natalie Powers when she scored 41 against Middle Tennessee on Feb. 1, 2001. She was just one point shy of tying the all-time record held by Crystal Kelly who scored 42 against Louisiana-Monroe on Feb. 23, 2008. It was also the third most points scored by a NCAA Division I women's basketball player this season.

"It's special with all the time I've put in the gym this year and last year," said Givens. "I'm going to enjoy it today and then keep pushing for the next game."

WKU improves to 7-2 on the season, getting their first win against Ball State since the 2016-17 season and the first road victory against the Cardinals since 2009.

"It wasn't the prettiest game and it wasn't our best played game, but sometimes you just have to slug it through in these ugly games to get a win," said head coach Greg Collins. "I was really proud of them for coming back and being tough."

Ball State scored first, converting on an and-one opportunity. Sherry Porter evened things up with a corner 3-pointer. Whitney Creech led WKU to a lead on a layup, but the Cardinals didn't let the lead last long. The Cardinals responded with a 9-0 run ended by Givens on a contested layup. Givens scored five more points in the quarter to keep the Lady Toppers in it.

The Cardinals reached their largest lead in the second quarter, going ahead by eight. The two teams went back-and-forth, heading to halftime with a 43-38 score with Ball State ahead.

Fatou Pouye scored six-straight points to open the second half. A layup by Raneem Elgedawy put WKU ahead for the first time since the 7:17 mark of the first quarter. Ball State tied things up again, but a 3-pointer from Givens pushed the Lady Toppers back ahead. The teams repeated the same sequence in the next two possessions, with the Cardinals scoring a basket and Givens knocking down a three. WKU had a two-point lead heading into the final quarter.

Ball State came out of the break and knocked down a three to take a one-point lead, but Givens had a fast break layup to put WKU back ahead. The fourth quarter saw four lead changes and three ties, including the tied score at the buzzer sending the game to overtime. Givens had a nice look at the basket at the end of regulation, but the ball had an unfriendly roll and rolled out.

After a Cardinal free throw, the Lady Toppers went on a 7-0 run with back-to-back layups from Elgedawy and then a 3-pointer from Givens. WKU got it to a seven-point lead and ultimately won the game by five.

Besides Givens, the Lady Toppers had three others in double-figure scoring. Creech notched 15 points, her 10th straight game in double digits. Creech also had a season-high seven assists. Elgedawy was held scoreless in the first half after getting in early foul trouble, but the reigning Conference USA Player of the Week scored 11 points in the second half. She also had nine rebounds. Pouye had 10 points, eight rebounds and three steals in the game.

The Lady Toppers improved to 7-1 this season when scoring 70 points or more. WKU forced Ball State into 18 turnovers and have continued to push opponents into double-digit turnovers in every game this season.

WKU will take a week for finals and return to the court against Samford on Sunday, December 15 in Birmingham.

Season tickets and single-game tickets for Lady Topper basketball games are now on sale. Tickets can be purchased online (here) or by calling 1-800-5-BIGRED. Tickets can also be purchased in-person at the WKU Ticket Office located in E.A. Diddle Arena.

WKU SET FOR ROAD MATCHUP WITH SAMFORD

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team continues its road stretch with a tilt against Samford in Birmingham on Sunday at 2 p.m. The game will be broadcast on ESPN+.

The Lady Toppers are off to a 7-2 start to the season and have won two-straight games after defeating Oklahoma and Ball State last week. WKU's win against Oklahoma was the first win against a Big 12 team for the Lady Toppers since topping Texas in 1990. WKU has now beaten a Power Five team in five of the last six seasons. WKU has three players in the top five in scoring in C-USA with Givens (18.1 points per game), Raneem Elgedawy (16.1 PPG) and Whitney Creech (16.0 PPG). The Lady Toppers are one of only three teams in the country to have three players in the top five of league scoring.

CREECH'S CAREER NIGHT PACES WKU TO WIN AT SAMFORD

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — The WKU women's basketball team had to hold off a Bulldog second half surge for its 88-84 win at Samford on Sunday afternoon. The Lady Toppers had four players in double figures, including 26 points from Whitney Creech.

WKU improves to 8-2 on the season and have won three straight games. The Lady Toppers currently have the best overall record in Conference USA.

Creech's 26 points paced the Lady Toppers and was a new career high for the senior. She was perfect from the field, going 10-of-10 and 2-of-2 from beyond the arc. Her only miss of the night came at the free throw line where she was 4-of-5.

Elgedawy joined Creech in the 20-point range, pouring in 23 points on the evening. It was the first time two WKU players scored 20-plus points in a game since Elgedawy and Givens did it at UTEP in February of last season. Elgedawy also eight rebounds and two steals in the game.

Sherry Porter had a season high 18 points in the game with 14 of them coming in the first half. She was 4-of-6 from 3-point range on the day. She also had five rebounds and two assists. Dee Givens was the final Lady Topper in double figures with 11 points.

Samford jumped out to a 7-2 lead to start the game, but WKU rushed back to get within one midway through the first quarter. The two teams went back-and-forth then Porter knocked down her second 3-pointer of the game to give the Lady Toppers their first lead. That play was part of a 12-2 run by WKU.

WKU outscored the Bulldogs 20-10 in the second quarter, holding Samford scoreless for nearly five minutes in the frame.

Elgedawy came out firing in the second half, scoring nine straight points to open the third quarter. In that stretch, the junior scored her 1,000th career point becoming the 41st member of the WKU 1,000 Point Club.

Samford ended the third quarter on a 13-0 run to bring the score within single digits heading into the final quarter.

WKU went on an 8-0 run in the fourth quarter to push its lead back out to double digits. That run was spearheaded by Creech who scored the first six points of the run. The Bulldogs didn't back down though, going on a 7-0 run of their own later in the quarter to bring the score back to within five points. With 18 seconds left in the game, a Samford shooter was fouled on a 3-point shot and hit all three free throws bringing the score to 86-83. Porter was fouled on the next possession and knocked down both free throws to keep the Bulldogs at bay.

Both teams shot exceptionally well from the floor. WKU connected on 56.1 percent (32-57) of their shots while Samford was 50 percent (29-58) from the field.

WKU forced Samford into 15 turnovers in the game and have forced opponents into double-digit miscues in every game this season.

The Lady Toppers will be back in action on Wednesday at Purdue. It's WKU's final non-conference game of the season and will close out 2019 for the Lady Tops. Tipoff is set for 11 a.m. (CST).

LADY TOPPERS TAKE ON PURDUE IN FINAL NON-CONFERENCE TILT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The non-conference portion of WKU women's basketball schedule has all but come and gone with only a midweek matchup against Purdue standing between the Lady Toppers and conference play. WKU will face the Boilermakers on Wednesday at 11 a.m. (CST) as part of an Education Day for Purdue in Mackey Arena.

The Lady Toppers are 8-2 on the season and have won three-straight games including a 2-0 record in WKU's five-game road stretch so far. Purdue is 7-3 on the season.

In their most recent outing, the Lady Toppers survived a late push by Samford on the road to win, 88-84. WKU had a 23-point lead midway through the third quarter after a well-played first half, but defensive lapses and hot shooting let the Bulldogs make a furious comeback. Samford got within three points, but veteran leadership took over for WKU and the Lady Toppers were able to put the Bulldogs away.

Whitney Creech led the Lady Toppers in the win with a career high 26 points on 10-of-10 shooting from the field, including 2-of-2 from 3-point range. She's only the fifth Lady Topper in program history to record a perfect game with a minimum of 10 attempts. She's also on the third NCAA Division I player to record the feat this season.

Raneem Elgedawy also had 23 points in the game along with 18 points from Sherry Porter and 11 from Dee Givens.

Purdue has three players averaging double-figure points. Karissa McLaughlin is putting up 12.2 points per game. Dominique Oden and Ae'Rianna Harris are averaging 11.1 points per game.

Wednesday's meeting will be the third between WKU and Purdue. The Lady Toppers own a 2-0 record against the Boilermakers. The first matchup came on December 11, 1976 in West Lafayette where WKU won 78-60. The second meeting was the following season on December 3, 1977 in Bowling Green and WKU won 67-47.

The Lady Toppers will tip-off Conference USA play with a trip to east Texas. WKU will face North Texas on Thursday, January 2. Then WKU will take on preseason favorite and 2018-19 champion Rice in Houston on Saturday, January 4.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — A tough shooting night hindered the WKU women's basketball team in a road loss at Purdue on Wednesday afternoon. The Lady Toppers fell, 67-50, in their final non-conference game of the season.

The Lady Toppers move to 8-3 on the season with the loss.

WKU was led in scoring by Whitney Creech with 16 points on the day. She has a 12-game streak with double-digit points and she's scored 15-or-more in 10 straight. The senior also had six assists in the game.

Raneem Elgedawy recorded her sixth double-double of the season with 15 points and 10 rebounds. She also matched her career high in steals with five in the game. She made two blocks, bringing her career total to 84 which ties Kendall Noble for the 10th most in WKU history.

Purdue was the first to score, but WKU was the team that took an early lead. Creech had seven early points to put the Lady Toppers ahead 11-6. The Boilermakers responded with a 10-0 run to take their first lead of the game. A pair of free throws from Dee Givens stopped the run for WKU, but Purdue scored the final points of the quarter to take a 18-13 lead going into the second period.

Both teams traded baskets to open the second quarter. WKU used a 9-0 run, capped off by a 3-pointer from Alexis Brewer for her first points of the season, to retake the lead. The lead didn't last long though. The Boilermakers went on their own 6-0 run in response to claim the lead back. Purdue led at halftime, 31-28.

Meral Abdelgawad struck from 3-point range to open second half scoring, drawing WKU even with Purdue. The Boilermakers scored the next six points to permanently take the lead, stretching it to double digits late in the third quarter. Purdue outscored WKU 18-14 in the fourth quarter to clinch the win.

WKU had 13 steals in the game, marking the sixth time this season the Lady Toppers have logged double-digit takeaways. They forced Purdue into 20 turnovers, the fifth time this season the Lady Toppers have caused 20-plus miscues by their opponent.

The Lady Toppers will take the rest of the year off, resuming play on January 2 at North Texas to tip-off Conference USA play.

WKU'S FINAL FOUR REGULAR SEASON GAMES ANNOUNCED

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The WKU women's basketball team now knows who they will play in the final four games of the season after Conference USA announced the updated schedule on Friday afternoon.

On Saturday, Feb. 22 the Lady Toppers will travel to Florida Atlantic and then a week later on Feb. 29 WKU will take on rival Middle Tennessee in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

The Lady Toppers will close out the regular season with two games in E.A. Diddle Arena. WKU will host Charlotte on March 5 and then Louisiana Tech on March 7.

The schedule format was designed to follow the traditional format for the first 14 games and then determine the final four games with consideration for competitive balance and geographical constraints. The unique format is geared towards providing more competitive matchups at the end of the season with the goal of increasing the number of C-USA teams advancing to postseason competition.

WKU tips off the C-USA season on Jan. 2 at North Texas and completes the east Texas trip at Rice on Jan. 4.

TOUGH ROAD

The Lady Toppers didn't take it easy on themselves when making out the 2019-20 non-conference schedule. WKU's first five opponents were 2019 participants in the NCAA Tournament and four of the five were selected to win their respective conferences (Louisville, Mercer, Belmont and Little Rock).

WKU's first five opponents combined for a 129-38 record last season.

The Lady Toppers have a current win home win streak of five games after ending last season with wins over archrival Middle Tennessee and Morehead State and then Belmont, Central Michigan and Little Rock in 2019-20. That streak is the longest since WKU rattled off 11-straight home wins in 2017-18.

The Lady Toppers forced an average

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

GAME NOTES

SIXTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first five seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 70-16 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record in 2018-19.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, including junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its first five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has taken over as head coach, the Lady Toppers have battled six ranked opponents. Since Collins has been on staff, WKU has faced 17 total ranked teams.

This season, the Lady Toppers tipped off the season against No. 9 Louisville.

VS. RANKED OPPONENTS UNDER COLLINS

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Last season, Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

The Lady Toppers are averaging 75.3 points per game so far in 2019-20. WKU has averaged 70 or more points in each of the last seven seasons.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe in 2018-19, including a streak of 38-consecutive made free throws.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage in 2018-19 ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869). Her career mark of .851 (257-of-301) would be the best in program history.

STEALING AWAY

The Lady Toppers have made 75 steals in 2019-20, the second most of any C-USA team and the 50th most in the country.

Whitney Creech leads the team with 17 on the year, which is the third most in the league.

So far this season, Dee Givens has 15 steals through seven games.

Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game, in 2018-19 a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players. Her 99 steals were the second most of any WKU player in a single season.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

The redshirt senior is 18 steals away from entering the top 10 all-time at WKU.

THAT 70'S SHOW

So far this season, the Lady Toppers have held five of seven teams played below 70 points, winning all five of those matchups. In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last four seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 65-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 37-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU in 2019, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

LEADING THE WAY AS AN ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as one of the premier women's basketball programs in the region. WKU leads local programs in all-time wins and 20-win seasons.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 pts/gm, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple 3-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT in 2019, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers will go on the road for the next five games. The first up is Saturday's game at Ball State at 2:30 p.m.

WKU Lady Toppers vs. Oklahoma Sooners
Postgame Notes
E.A. Diddle Arena; Bowling Green, Ky.

FINAL SCORE: WKU 74, Oklahoma 63

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU starts the 2019-20 season with a 6-2 record, the team's best start since the 2015-16 season.
- The Lady Toppers' win marked the program's first over the Sooners, as WKU fell to Oklahoma in each of the team's two previous meetings (1985, 2018).
- WKU extends its home winning streak to six, which dates back to last season with wins over Middle Tennessee and Morehead State in the WNIT and moved to 4-0 in Diddle this season.
- WKU's victory was its first over a Power 5 program since Nov. 10, 2017, when the Lady Toppers took down Missouri for a 79-76 season-opening win and it was the first home win against a Power Five team since defeating Indiana 85-74 on Nov. 19, 2016. It was the Lady Toppers' first victory against a Big 12 school since a 61-56 win against Texas on Jan. 11, 1990 in Bowling Green.

Team Notes

- The starting lineup of Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Raneem Elgedawy, Sherry Porter and Meral Abdelgawad helped the Lady Toppers to a victory for the sixth time this season. The group has started in seven-consecutive games.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Neither team could gain a decisive advantage during the opening half; however, the Lady Toppers were able to pull ahead in the second quarter thanks to an 11-6 WKU run. During the run, Elgedawy scored six points, the same as the entire Oklahoma team. Givens recorded three points, and Creech added two.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: The Lady Toppers started the second half with an impressive 21-4 run that saw their lead swell to 18 by the 4:42 mark of the third quarter. Sherry Porter and Whitney Creech led the way for the Lady Toppers during the run with six points each. Dee Givens followed closely behind with five points, while Meral Abdelgawad and Raneem Elgedawy both added two.
- WKU pressured the Sooners into 31 turnovers, the most since FIU committed 31 in their game against the Lady Toppers on New Year's Day 2017. WKU has forced opponents into double-digit turnovers in every game this season and has forced opponents to commit 20 or more turnovers in four of the Lady Toppers' eight games.
- WKU's largest lead of the game came with 4:42 remaining in the third quarter, when the Lady Toppers held a 52-34 lead over the Sooners.
- WKU has scored 70 or more points in all six regular season wins, while holding their opponents in those games to an average of 58.3 points scored.

Individual Notes

- With an 18-point outing, Dee Givens has passed Dianne Depp and Gina Brown to claim sole possession of 24th place on the program's all-time points leaderboard. Givens also moved up on the all-time 3-pointers made list at WKU. With 183 made threes, Givens is now in sixth place. Tonight, she added seven rebounds and three steals to her performance.
- Raneem Elgedawy was just one rebound shy of recording her fifth-consecutive double-double, finishing the game with 23 points, the most she has scored at home this season, and nine rebounds. Averaging 17.1 points per game this season, Elgedawy is now the leading scorer in Conference USA.
- Whitney Creech's 17-point outing extends her streak of double-digit scoring to nine games, a streak that dates back to WKU's game against Ohio in the Quarterfinals of last season's WNIT. Creech had five rebounds, three assists and two steals on the night. She's had multiple steals in five games this season.
- Sherry Porter continued her string of consistent performances, recording eight points and shooting 50% from beyond the arc against the Sooners. Her five steals on the night were a new career high for the junior.

TOUGH ROAD

The Lady Toppers didn't take it easy on themselves when making out the 2019-20 non-conference schedule. WKU's first five opponents were 2019 participants in the NCAA Tournament and four of the five were selected to win their respective conferences (Louisville, Mercer, Belmont and Little Rock).

WKU's first five opponents combined for a 129-38 record last season.

TRACKING DEE

Dee Givens became the 40th member of the 1,000 point club last season.

22. Dominique Duck - 1,344

23. Renee Westmoreland - 1,258

24. Dee Givens - 1,253

Givens is also top 10 on WKU's career 3-pointers made list as well.

5. Kristina Covington - 193

6. Dee Givens - 183

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU is 4-0 inside Diddle Arena this season. The Lady Toppers have a current win home win streak of six games after ending last season with wins over archrival Middle Tennessee and Morehead State. That streak is the longest since WKU rattled off 11-straight home wins in 2017-18. That win streak is tied for the 36th longest of all NCAA Division I women's basketball teams.

The Lady Toppers have posted an 89-18 (.832) record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13 and a 14-6 record since he took over as head coach.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

This season, WKU has forced opponents into double-digit turnovers in every game this season, including four games of 20-plus turnovers for the opposition. Opponents are averaging 20.5 turnovers per game against the Lady Toppers this season.

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

CREECH THE SENIOR

Head coach Greg Collins said before the season that in order for WKU to be successful that senior point guard Whitney Creech would need to average double-digit scoring. The Jenkin, Kentucky native is doing just that.

Creech is averaging 16.1 points per game through eight games this season, scoring in double figures in each one of them. She has a streak of nine games in double figures after scoring 13 in last season's final game.

WINNING BIG

The Lady Toppers have won a few blow outs this season, including back-to-back 30-point wins against Belmont and Central Michigan. It was the first time a WKU team had done that since the 2014-15 season.

Through eight games, WKU has an average score of +12.0. That mark is third best in C-USA.

After finishing last season in a tie for third place with Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers have been picked to finish third in the C-USA Coaches Preseason Poll.

WKU will be seeking to meet or outperform its preseason expectations for the fourth straight season.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

SIXTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first five seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 70-16 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record in 2018-19.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, including junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its first five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-

USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has taken over as head coach, the Lady Toppers have battled six ranked opponents. Since Collins has been on staff, WKU has faced 17 total ranked teams.

This season, the Lady Toppers tipped off the season against No. 9 Louisville.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the Afrobasketball competition.

Last season, Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

The Lady Toppers are averaging 75.1 points per game so far in 2019-20. WKU has averaged 70 or more points in each of the last seven seasons.

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe in 2018-19, including a streak of 38-consecutive made free throws.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage in 2018-19 ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869). Her career mark of .848 (262-of-309) would be the best in program history.

STEALING AWAY

The Lady Toppers have made 89 steals in 2019-20, the most of any C-USA team and the 26th most in the country.

Whitney Creech leads the team with 19 on the year, which is also the most in the league.

So far this season, Dee Givens has 158 steals through eight games. Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game, in 2018-19 a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players. Her 99 steals were the second most of any WKU player in a single season.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

The redshirt senior is 15 steals away from entering the top 10 all-time at WKU.

LEADING THE WAY AS AN ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as one of the premier women's basketball programs in the region. WKU leads local programs in all-time wins and 20-win seasons.

THAT 70'S SHOW

So far this season, the Lady Toppers have held six of eight teams played below 70 points, winning all six of those matchups. In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last four seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 66-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 37-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

DYNAMIC DUO

Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy twice combined for more than 50 points last season, forming a strong scoring duo for the Lady Toppers.

At FIU in 2019, the pair combined for 59 points as both had career-high performances, and the two also combined for 53 points at UTEP as the Lady Topper engineering a 12-point come-from-behind victory over the Miners.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 pts/gm, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple 3-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT in 2019, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

The Lady Toppers stay on the road and compete at Samford on Sunday, Dec. 15. Tipoff is set for 2 p.m. in Birmingham.

WKU Lady Toppers at Ball State Cardinals
Postgame Notes
December 7, 2019
Worthen Arena; Muncie, Ind.

FINAL SCORE (OT): WKU 91, Ball State 86

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU improves to 7-2 on the season, the best start for the Lady Toppers since the 2015-16 season.
- The Lady Toppers' win pushes their record against Ball State to 4-5, their first since the 2016-17 season and their first in Muncie since 2009.

Team Notes

- The starting lineup of Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Raneem Elgedawy, Sherry Porter and Meral Abdelgawad helped the Lady Toppers to a victory for the seventh time this season. The group has started in eighth-consecutive games.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: After trading baskets early, Ball State was able to build an early lead with a 7-0 run at the midway point of the first quarter. WKU was able to cut it to one at one point, but the Cardinals kept the lead for the rest of the half and took a 43-48 advantage into halftime.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: The Lady Toppers recovered by outscoring the Cardinals 21-14 in the third quarter. Fatou Pouye came out and scored six straight points to put WKU in striking range. Neither team could fully separate itself from the other, thus overtime. In the extra period Raneem Elgedawy (seven points) and Dee Givens (six points) led WKU to victory.
- WKU has played two overtime games this season with an overtime loss at Saint Mary's and tonight's win at Ball State. It's the first time playing two overtime games in one season for WKU since 2016-17.
- The Lady Toppers improve to 7-1 on the season when scoring 70 points or more.
- WKU forced Ball State into 18 turnovers. Lady Topper opponents have turned the ball over in double-digit numbers in every game this season.

Individual Notes

- Dee Givens had a career night, scoring 41 points in the game, breaking the Worthen Arena record for a women's basketball player. The record was previously held by Jaimie Lehotsky of Ball State, scoring 35 against Chicago State on Nov. 26, 1994. It was also tied for the second most points scored by a Lady Topper in single-game history, tying Natalie Powers when she scored 41 against Middle Tennessee on Feb. 1, 2001. Givens was one point shy of tying the all-time record set by Crystal Kelly with 42 against Louisiana-Monroe on Feb. 23, 2008. Her 41 points are tied for the third most scored by a NCAA Division I women's basketball player this season. She now has 1,294 career points putting her 23rd place all-time at WKU. She was 14-of-28 from the field, 6-of-14 from beyond the arc and 7-of-7 from the free throw line. She also had seven rebounds, one assist and one steal on the night.

- Whitney Creech continued her double-digit scoring streak with 15 points in the game. She had a season-high seven assists along with two rebounds and a block.
- After sitting out most of the first half after getting in foul trouble, Raneem Elgedawy came in and scored 11 points in the second half including seven in the overtime period. She was one rebound short of a double-double.
- Fatou Pouye also had double digits, scoring 10 points. She had eight rebounds and three steals as well.
- Sherry Porter filled out the stat line with eight points, five rebounds, two assists and two steals.

- Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach in 2019-20
- The Lady Toppers are off to a perfect start at home with a record of 4-0 inside the friendly confines of E.A. Diddle Arena. WKU is 3-2 on the road so far in 2019-20.
- WKU closes out the non-conference schedule with Samford and Purdue on the road. The Lady Toppers will tip-off Conference USA play at North Texas on January 2 followed by a matchup with the preseason C-USA favorite and 2018-19 champion Rice in Houston. The last four games of the C-USA schedule will be announced on December 19.
- Last week, the Lady Toppers went 2-0 with a win against Oklahoma and at Ball State. It was the first win against a Big 12 opponent for WKU since 1990. WKU has won a game against a Power Five school in five of the last six seasons. Ball State was team that seemed to have WKU's number in recent seasons, but the Lady Toppers prevailed in overtime against the Cardinals. It was the first win in Muncie for WKU since 2009.
- Following a 41-point performance at Ball State, Dee Givens was named Conference USA Player of the Week and was selected to the NCAA Starting Five. Givens' 41 points broke a Worthen Arena record and tied for the second most points by a Lady Topper, one point shy of the record. It was also tied for the third most points scored by a NCAA player this season.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ Sunday will be only the second meeting between WKU and Samford. The two programs previously met in 2011. The Lady Toppers won that matchup, 58-57, in Birmingham.
- ▶ WKU is 94-29 all-time against teams from the state of Alabama
- ▶ The Lady Toppers are 7-2 to start the season for the first time since the 2015-16 season.
- ▶ WKU will be on the road until 2020 with five-straight road games. It's the first time WKU will have five consecutive true road games (non-tournaments) since 1995. From January 2-15 of that season, the Lady Toppers played at Duquesne, Iowa, Auburn, New Orleans and Arkansas State and went 3-2 during that stretch.

GAME NOTES

TERRIFIC THREE

WKU has three players in the top five in scoring among Conference USA players with Dee Givens (18.1 points per game), Raneem Elgedawy (16.1 PPG) and Whitney Creech (16.0 PPG).

The Lady Toppers are one of only three teams in the nation to have three in their league's top five. The other two teams are St. Francis Brooklyn (Northeast Conference) and Fresno State (Mountain West).

DEE BUCKETS

Redshirt senior Dee Givens had one of the most impressive games in program history in a overtime win against Ball State on December 7. Givens scorched the nets for 41 points, breaking a Worthen Arena record and tying for the second most points in school history. She also tied for the third most points in the NCAA this season at the time.

In the same week, WKU defeated Oklahoma and Givens was the second leading scorer in that game with 18 points. For her performances, she was named the Conference USA Player of the Week and was selected to the NCAA Weekly Starting Five.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU is 4-0 inside Diddle Arena this season. The Lady Toppers have a current win home win streak of six games after ending last season with wins over archrival Middle Tennessee and Morehead State. That streak is the longest since WKU rattled off 11-straight home wins in 2017-18. That win streak is tied for the 36th longest of all NCAA Division I women's basketball teams.

The Lady Toppers have posted an 89-18 (.832) record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13 and a 14-6 record since he took over as head coach.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

This season, WKU has forced opponents into double-digit turnovers in every game this season, including four games of 20-plus turnovers for the opposition. Opponents are averaging 20.2 turnovers per game against the Lady Toppers this season.

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

WINNING BIG

The Lady Toppers have won a few blow outs this season, including back-to-back 30-point wins against Belmont and Central Michigan. It was the first time a WKU team had done that since the 2014-15 season. At the time, Belmont was receiving votes in the AP Poll.

Through nine games, WKU has an average score of +11.2. That mark is second best in C-USA.

TRACKING DEE

Dee Givens became the 40th member of the 1,000 point club last season.

21. Pam (Kordenbrock) Hart - 1,375

22. Dominique Duck - 1,344

5. Kristina Covington - 193

6. Dee Givens - 189

GAME NOTES

CREECH THE SENIOR

Head coach Greg Collins said before the season that in order for WKU to be successful that senior point guard Whitney Creech would need to average double-digit scoring. The Jenkin, Kentucky native is doing just that.

Creech is averaging 16.0 points per game through nine games this season, scoring in double figures in each one of them. She has a streak of 10 games in double figures after scoring 13 in last season's final game.

KENTUCKY KIDS

WKU features four seniors this season in Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Alexis Brewer and Sandra Skinner. All four student-athletes hail from the Bluegrass State. Givens calls Lexington home. Creech is from Jenkins. Brewer is from Buffalo and Skinner is from Winchester.

TOUGH ROAD

The Lady Toppers didn't take it easy on themselves when making out the 2019-20 non-conference schedule. WKU's first five opponents were participants in the 2019 NCAA Tournament and four of the five were selected to win their respective conferences (Louisville, Mercer, Belmont and Little Rock).

WKU's first five opponents combined for a 129-38 record last season.

WKU PICKED THIRD IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After finishing last season in a tie for third place with Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers have been picked to finish third in the C-USA Coaches Preseason Poll.

WKU will be seeking to meet or outperform its preseason expectations for the fourth straight season.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

SIXTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first five seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 70-16 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record in 2018-19.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, including junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its first five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has taken over as head coach, the Lady Toppers have battled six ranked opponents. Since Collins has been on staff, WKU has faced 17 total ranked teams.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasket competition.

Last season, Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

The Lady Toppers are averaging 76.9 points per game so far in 2019-20. WKU has averaged 70 or more points in each of the last seven seasons.

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

LEADING THE WAY AS AN ELITE WBB PROGRAM IN THE REGION

Western Kentucky University has separated itself as one of the premier women's basketball programs in the region. WKU leads local programs in all-time wins and 20-win seasons.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe in 2018-19, including a streak of 38-consecutive made free throws.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage in 2018-19 ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869).

Her career mark of .851 (269-of-316) would be the best in program history and is currently the third best career percentage among active players in the NCAA.

STEALING AWAY

The Lady Toppers have made 98 steals in 2019-20, the most of any C-USA team and the 36th most in the country.

Whitney Creech and Dee Givens lead the team with 19 on the year, which is the third most in the league.

Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game, in 2018-19 a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players. Her 99 steals were the second most of any WKU player in a single season.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

The redshirt senior is 14 steals away from entering the top 10 all-time at WKU.

THAT 70'S SHOW

So far this season, the Lady Toppers have held six of nine teams played below 70 points, winning all six of those matchups. In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last four seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 66-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 37-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

BREWING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Over her last 10 games of 2018-19, Alexis Brewer averaged 13.8 pts/gm, well above her season average of 11.4, and scored in double figures in eight of those 10 outings.

Brewer led the team in scoring during the 2019 C-USA Tournament, totaling 28 points across WKU's pair of games in Frisco, and was one of only two Lady Toppers to hit multiple 3-pointers in the event.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT in 2019, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

WKU's five-game road stretch continues at Purdue on Wednesday, December 18. Tipoff is set for 11 a.m. The game is an Education Game for the Boilermakers meaning students from the surrounding area will be bused in and be in attendance.

2019-20 QUICK HITS

- Head coach Greg Collins embarks on his second season as head coach in 2019-20
- The Lady Toppers are off to a perfect start at home with a record of 4-0 inside the friendly confines of E.A. Diddle Arena. WKU is 3-2 on the road so far in 2019-20.
- WKU closes out the non-conference schedule Purdue on the road. The Lady Toppers will tip-off Conference USA play at North Texas on January 2 followed by a matchup with the preseason C-USA favorite and 2018-19 champion Rice in Houston. The last four games of the C-USA schedule will be announced on December 19.
- The Lady Toppers have a three-game winning streak coming into the tilt with Purdue with a win against Oklahoma, at Ball State and at Samford.
- In WKU's most recent game, the Lady Toppers survived a late push by Samford to win, 88-84. The Lady Toppers had a 23-point lead midway through the third quarter after a well-played first half, but defensive lapses and hot shooting let the Bulldogs make a furious comeback. Samford got it within three points, but ultimately veteran leadership took over for WKU and the Lady Tops were able to put the Bulldogs away.
- Whitney Creech went a perfect 10-of-10 from the field in that game, becoming only the fifth Lady Topper and the third NCAA Division I player this season to do so.

TALKING POINTS AND NOTABLE STATISTICS

- ▶ Wednesday will be the third meeting between WKU and Purdue all-time. The Lady Toppers own a 2-0 record against the Boilermakers. The first meeting came on December 11, 1076 in West Lafayette where WKU won 78-60. The second matchup was the following season on December 3, 1977 in Bowling Green and WKU won 67-47.
- ▶ WKU is 25-13 all-time against teams from the state of Indiana
- ▶ The Lady Toppers are 8-2 to start the season for the first time since the 2015-16 season.
- ▶ WKU will be on the road until 2020 with five-straight road games. It's the first time WKU will have five consecutive true road games (non-tournaments) since 1995. From January 2-15 of that season, the Lady Toppers played at Duquesne, Iowa, Auburn, New Orleans and Arkansas State and went 3-2 during that stretch.

GAME NOTES

TERRIFIC THREE

WKU has three players in the top five in scoring among Conference USA players with Dee Givens in first (17.4 points per game), Raneem Elgedawy in third (17.2 PPG) and Whitney Creech in fifth (17.1 PPG).

The Lady Toppers are one of only three teams in the nation to have three in their league's top five. The other two teams are St. Francis Brooklyn (Northeast Conference) and Fresno State (Mountain West).

DEE BUCKETS

Redshirt senior Dee Givens had one of the most impressive games in program history in a overtime win against Ball State on December 7. Givens scorched the nets for 41 points, breaking a Worthen Arena record and tying for the second most points in school history. She also tied for the third most points in the NCAA this season at the time.

In the same week, WKU defeated Oklahoma and Givens was the second leading scorer in that game with 18 points. For her performances, she was named the Conference USA Player of the Week and was selected to the NCAA Weekly Starting Five.

DEFENDING DIDDLE

WKU is 4-0 inside Diddle Arena this season. The Lady Toppers have a current win home win streak of six games after ending last season with wins over archrival Middle Tennessee and Morehead State. That streak is the longest since WKU rattled off 11-straight home wins in 2017-18. That win streak is tied for the 36th longest of all NCAA Division I women's basketball teams.

The Lady Toppers have posted an 89-18 (.832) record inside the friendly confines of its home arena since Greg Collins has been with the program in 2012-13 and a 14-6 record since he took over as head coach.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF

This season, WKU has forced opponents into double-digit turnovers in every game this season, including four games of 20-plus turnovers for the opposition. Opponents are averaging 19.7 turnovers per game against the Lady Toppers this season.

WKU's defense last season pressured all but two of its 35 opponents into double-digit turnovers on the season.

The Lady Toppers forced an average of 16.6 turnovers per game on the 2018-19 season.

WINNING BIG

The Lady Toppers have won a few blow outs this season, including back-to-back 30-point wins against Belmont and Central Michigan. It was the first time a WKU team had done that since the 2014-15 season. At the time, Belmont was receiving votes in the AP Poll.

Through nine games, WKU has an average score of +11.2. That mark is second best in C-USA.

CREECH THE SENIOR

Head coach Greg Collins said before the season that in order for WKU to be successful that senior point guard Whitney Creech would need to average double-digit scoring. The Jenkins, Kentucky native is doing just that.

Creech is averaging 17.0 points per game through 10 games this season, scoring in double figures in each one of them. She has a streak of 11 games in double figures after scoring 13 in last season's final game.

TOUGH ROAD

The Lady Toppers didn't take it easy on themselves when making out the 2019-20 non-conference schedule. WKU's first five opponents were participants in the 2019 NCAA Tournament and four of the five were selected to win their respective conferences (Louisville, Mercer, Belmont and Little Rock).

WKU's first five opponents combined for a 129-38 record last season.

WKU PICKED THIRD IN PRESEASON C-USA COACHES' POLL

After finishing last season in a tie for third place with Middle Tennessee, the Lady Toppers have been picked to finish third in the C-USA Coaches Preseason Poll.

WKU will be seeking to meet or outperform its preseason expectations for the fourth straight season.

THE ONE THAT DIDN'T COUNT

WKU unofficially opened the season with a Halloween night exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan. The Panthers gave the Lady Toppers quite the scare, leading most of the game. A second half comeback, that included a fourth quarter that saw WKU triple up the Panthers, helped the Lady Toppers secure the win.

Dee Givens led all scorers with 19 points and nine rebounds. Raneem Elgedawy had a rough start, going 1-of-6 from the floor to start the game, but bounced back to make five of her next six shots. She finished with a double-double, scoring 15 points and pulling down 16 boards.

SIXTH YEAR IN CONFERENCE USA

Over its first five seasons as a member of Conference USA, WKU has established itself as a formidable opponent against the league's 13 other teams. The Lady Toppers own a 70-16 mark against the rest of the league since joining and posted an 11-5 record in 2018-19.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

WKU enters the 2019-20 season having had only seven international letterwinners in program history, including junior Raneem Elgedawy and sophomore

Meral Abdelgawad.

This year, the Lady Toppers will sport three international student-athletes on the roster, with Fatou Pouye joining Elgedawy and Abdelgawad on The Hill.

TITLETOWN C-USA

In its first five seasons as a C-USA member, WKU has claimed a pair of regular season titles and has won the conference tournament three times, including back-to-back wins in both 2017 and 2018.

WKU is only the second school in C-USA history to claim back-to-back tournament titles as a league member, joining former member Tulane, who won three straight from 1999-2001.

LADY TOPPERS VS. RANKED TEAMS

Since Greg Collins has taken over as head coach, the Lady Toppers have battled six ranked opponents. Since Collins has been on staff, WKU has faced 17 total ranked teams.

This season, the Lady Toppers tipped off the season against No. 9 Louisville.

THE EGYPTIAN CONNECTION

Raneem Elgedawy and Meral Abdelgawad became the first WKU players to represent their home country on a senior national team while still competing at the school when they teamed up to play with the Egyptian National Team in the summer. The squad competed in the AfroBasketball competition.

Last season, Elgedawy and Abdelgawad combined to score 822 of WKU's 2,537 points, just under a third of the team's total.

In addition to their scoring, the duo combined for 350 rebounds, also just under a third of the team's total of 1,132.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

The Lady Toppers are averaging 78.0 points per game so far in 2019-20. WKU has averaged 70 or more points in each of the last seven seasons. WKU's 78.0 points per game would rank 10th all-time in the program's 58-year history and it currently leads Conference USA.

In Greg Collins' first season, WKU featured a revamped, fast-paced offensive attack that averaged 72.5 points per game.

DEE-LIGHTFUL AT THE LINE

Dee Givens enjoyed a strong season from the charity stripe in 2018-19, including a streak of 38-consecutive made free throws.

Givens' .859 (158-of-184) percentage in 2018-19 ranked third in single-season history for the Lady Toppers, trailing only Natalie Powers (.874) and Laurie Townsend (.869).

Her career mark of .851 (274-of-322) would be the best in program history and is currently the third best career percentage among active players in the NCAA.

STEALING AWAY

The Lady Toppers have made 107 steals in 2019-20, the most of any C-USA team and the 32nd most in the country.

Whitney Creech and Dee Givens lead the team with 21 on the year, which is the third most in the league.

Givens had 99 total steals, an average of 2.8 per game, in 2018-19 a number that ranked 19th among all qualifying Division I players. Givens' 99 steals was also the top mark among all C-USA players. Her 99 steals were the second most of any WKU player in a single season.

Givens was the only C-USA player last season with multiple games of eight or more steals.

The redshirt senior is 14 steals away from entering the top 10 all-time at WKU.

THAT 70'S SHOW

So far this season, the Lady Toppers have held six of 10 teams played below 70 points, winning all six of those matchups. In 2018-19, WKU's defense limited its opponents to fewer than 70 points on 21 occasions, coming away with a win in all but four of those games.

Over the last four seasons dating back to 2016-17, the Lady Toppers have posted a 66-7 record when holding their opponents under 70 points, including a perfect 37-0 mark when limiting them to fewer than 60 points.

HOME SWEET ROAD?

WKU has captured 32 road victories in C-USA play since joining the conference in 2014-15 and has unquestionably been one of the toughest teams to face both at home and away.

WKU's 32 road wins are more than all but one C-USA school (Middle Tennessee) have won on their own home courts against other C-USA opponents over the last five years.

CHECKING THE LAST BOX

With its win over UTSA on Jan. 31, 2019 WKU has now captured at least one road win over each of the other 13 C-USA schools since joining the league in 2014.

The Lady Toppers have 32 total conference road victories in the five seasons as a league member.

DEATH, TAXES AND 20-WIN SEASONS

With its win over Morehead State in the second round of the WNIT in 2019, WKU secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season, hitting that mark in every year that Greg Collins has been on staff.

The seven straight 20-win season streak matches the program record set under Paul Sanderford from 1982-83 to 1988-89.

In WKU's modern era (since 1973-74), six of the 11 head coaches have captured 20-win seasons in their debut years on The Hill, most recently with Greg Collins this season.

WKU is one of only 18 Division I programs with an active streak of at least seven straight 20-win seasons, joining perennial powers such as UConn, Louisville, Baylor and Maryland in the category.

UP NEXT

WKU will tip off conference play making the east Texas trip, taking on North Texas and Rice. The Lady Toppers will face North Texas on Thursday, January 2 and Rice on Saturday, January 4.

WKU Lady Toppers at Purdue Boilermakers
Postgame Notes
Mackey Arena; West Lafayette, Ind.

FINAL SCORE: Purdue 67, WKU 50

Team Records, Game Notables and Series Information

- WKU moves to 8-3 on the season with the loss.
- The Lady Toppers are now 2-1 against Purdue all-time.

Team Notes

- WKU used the starting lineup of Dee Givens, Whitney Creech, Raneem Elgedawy, Sherry Porter and Meral Abdelgawad for the 10th consecutive game. The group is 8-2 when starting together this season.
- KEY FIRST HALF RUN: Purdue was the first to score, but WKU was the team that took an early lead. Creech had seven early points to put the Lady Toppers ahead 11-6. The Boilermakers responded with a 10-0 run to take their first lead of the game. A pair of free throws from Dee Givens stopped the run for WKU, but Purdue scored the final points of the quarter to take a 18-13 lead going into the second period.
- KEY SECOND HALF RUN: Meral Abdelgawad struck from 3-point range to open second half scoring, drawing WKU even with Purdue. The Boilermakers scored the next six points to permanently take the lead, stretching it to double digits late in the third quarter.
- WKU forced Purdue into 20 turnovers in the game, marking the fifth time this season the Lady Toppers have turned their opponent over 20-plus times. WKU's opponents have had double-digit miscues in every game this season.
- The Lady Toppers had 13 steals, two short of their season high reached against Belmont earlier in the season. It was the sixth time this season WKU had logged double-digit takeaways in a game.
- WKU's 34.0 shooting percentage from the field was the lowest since the season opener when the Lady Toppers shot 33.3 percent against Louisville.
